Care Home Stories Sally Chivers, Ulla Kriebner, 2018-03-15 Institutional care for seniors offers a cultural repository for fears and hopes about an aging population Although enormous changes have occurred in how institutional care is structured the legacies of the poorhouse still persist creating panicked views of the nursing home as a dreaded fate The paradoxical nature of a space meant to be both hospital and home offers up critical tensions for examination by age studies scholars The essays in this book challenge stereotypes of institutional care for older adults illustrate the changes that have occurred over time and illuminate the continuities in the stories we tell about nursing homes Handbook of Aging and the Social Sciences Linda George, Kenneth Ferraro, 2015-08-18 Handbook of Aging and the Social Sciences Eighth Edition presents the extraordinary growth of research on aging individuals populations and the dynamic culmination of the life course providing a comprehensive synthesis and review of the latest research findings in the social sciences of aging As the complexities of population dynamics cohort succession and policy changes modify the world and its inhabitants in ways that must be vigilantly monitored so that aging research remains relevant and accurate this completely revised edition not only includes the foundational classic themes of aging research but also a rich array of emerging topics and perspectives that advance the field in exciting ways New topics include families immigration social factors and cognition caregiving neighborhoods and built environments natural disasters religion and health and sexual behavior amongst others Covers the key areas in sociological gerontology research in one volume with an 80% update of the material Headed up by returning editor Linda K George and new editor Kenneth Ferraro highly respected voices and researchers within the sociology of aging discipline Assists basic researchers in keeping abreast of research and clinical findings Includes theory and methods aging and social structure social factors and social institutions and aging and society Serves as a useful resource an inspiration to those searching for ways to contribute to the aging enterprise and a tribute to the rich bodies of scholarship that comprise aging research in the social sciences Housing Design for an Increasingly Older Population Victor Regnier, 2018-08-13

Longer lifespans and the needs of the oldest old are challenging the senior living industry to find bold and compassionate solutions to combine programs and services with housing Victor Regnier's latest research provides a thoughtful and insightful roadmap that arrays new ways of thinking from small scale settings to community based options International case studies offer possible solutions with the best thinking from around the globe all with Vic's unique perspective of extracting themes and concepts that are broadly applicable and essential to addressing the needs of those that live on life's fragile edge

David Hoglund FAIA Supporting the independence of the oldest old is a tough problem Victor Regnier addresses in his latest book on aging and housing Like previous work Victor relies on the best practices of northern Europeans to outline a three prong approach First providing extremely comprehensive home care services in an apartment for life setting Second reforming the conventional nursing home by exploring small group style accommodations Third combining new technology with community based services to age in place Case studies document the experiences of others in making these programs work here and abroad The magnitude of the 90 and 100 population increases in the next 50 years make it clear how important it is to address this concern today

Edward Steinfeld Darch The movement of health care from the institution to the home is a theme that Regnier identifies as one of the most important lessons in rethinking the issue of how to support the ever growing and increasingly aged older population here and abroad He examines simple but profound approaches we can take in making long term care a more humane proposition Familiar themes like humanizing technology and optimizing the impact of the natural environment are brought together with clear policy thinking about what we need to do The timing is good because the impact of this growing segment of society will have major repercussions on health care for the next 50 70 years

Stephan Verderber Ph D A comprehensive guide to designing housing for the world's aging population The dilemma of helping older people maintain their independence through better housing with services is growing This book presents innovative solutions for those who create and provide housing for the world's increasingly longer living population By focusing on three specific housing and service arrangements it offers alternatives that provide greater freedom of choice than the current living arrangements that exist today It presents selected examples of housing and service solutions from the US Sweden Denmark and the Netherlands to stimulate thinking about the possibilities of community based service models

Housing Design for an Increasingly Older Population looks at a trio of options for housing the oldest old the Dutch Apartment Condo for Life Model AFL decentralized Small Green Houses and the provision of enhanced personal and health care for people who want to stay in their own home It offers unique and eye opening chapters covering what older people want what age changes affect independence demographics and living arrangements how long term care is defined concepts and objectives for housing the frail care giving and management practices that avoid an institutional lifestyle innovative case studies programs that encourage staying at home with service assistance therapeutic use of outdoor spaces how technology will help people stay independent and more Based on the author s numerous conversations with other experts as well as his examinations of high quality settings from Northern Europe and the US Building case study examples showcase innovative and compassionate solutions In depth coverage of three major systems that work Examines successful programs such as PACE Friendly Cities NORC and the Village to Village Network to demonstrate the progress made in helping older frail people stay in their own homes for as long as possible Housing Design for an Increasingly Older Population Redefining Assisted Living for the Mentally and Physically Frail is an important book for those who create design and manage assisted living and skilled nursing facilities as well as for those who set policies regarding health and personal care for our world s aging society Lessons From Joan Eric R. Kingson,2005-11-17 In Lessons from Joan Eric R Kingson tells how his late wife s strength warmth humor and love and those of many people they met along the way helped extend life and make it worth living It is about the fear hope and intensity of their lives during the thirty two months that followed Joan s cancer diagnosis and how Joan and her husband and children maintained their family life during this time It is about some of the funny moving and courageous things that happened along the way And it is about what they did to access compassionate state of the art care including aggressive interventions that provided hope and improved the quality of Joan s life Lessons from Joan is not intended as a how to book but within its pages readers will find lessons and practical advice about how to deal with unexpected life threatening illnesses Encyclopedia of Health Services Research Ross M.
