It Was Good Making Art To The Glory Of God

Michael J. Bauer

It Was Good Making Art To The Glory Of God:

It was Good Ned Bustard, Sandra Bowden, 2000 The goal of this book is to provide a deeper discussion of what believers practicing their discipline for God's glory would or should look like Rather than defending the believer's place in the arts this book is intended to be primarily about issues related to making art Page 9 It Was Good Keith Getty, 2013 What does it mean to be a creative individual who is a follower of the creative God This book seeks to answer that question through collections of essays which offer theoretical and practical insights into making music from a Christian perspective

Evangelicals and the Arts in Fiction John Weaver, 2013-04-19 This book is an exploration of how the relationship of evangelicals to the arts has been portrayed in fiction for the last century The author argues that evangelicals are consistently seen as enemies of the arts by non evangelical writers The artist typically represented by a literal artist occasionally by a scientist or reluctant messiah typically has to fight for liberation from such cliched character types as the failed evangelical artist the rube or the hypocritical pastor Rather than resist the cliché of anti art evangelicalism the book contends that evangelicals should embrace it this stereotype is only hurtful so long as one assumes that the arts represent a positive force in human society This work built off the scholarship of John Carey does not make that assumption Surveying the current pro artistic views of most evangelicals the author advances the argument that evangelicals need to return to their anti art roots By doing so they would align themselves with the most radical artistic elements of modernism rather than with the classicists that the movement currently seems to prefer and provide space for themselves to critique how secular artistic stereotypes of evangelicals have economically and artistically marginalized the evangelicals community A Redemptive Theology of Art David A. Covington, 2018-05-01 A Redemptive Theology of Art develops a biblical systematic and practical theology of aesthetics It begins with the roots and ontology of aesthetics vs art and the architecture and narrative of affection and passion their woes and their glory Those who would search the Bible find little support for art as commonly conceived in the West The language of aesthetics applied to the maker's intentions the qualities of the work and the responses of the audience better addresses the questions of beauty and better suits the discussion of human actions beliefs and culture than the language of art does The Bible yields more consistent and helpful answers to questions about the broader category of aesthetics than it does to questions about art leading in turn to better questions and a more practical and theological appreciation of human affections beauty and delight and the many paths by which people including Christians pursue them Using the categories and definitions from Scripture Covington gives hope and help not only for those who labor in the arts but for everyone who cares about the passions that motivate us We were made for God's delight and though sin and bondage plague our passions God can shape our fun feelings desires affections and aversions Feelings are neither objective nor subjective they are redeemable Borrowing key ideas from other Christian writers on the arts or aesthetics Covington explores the connection between orthodox Protestant theology and a responsible respectful treatment of arts artists and all

aesthetic fields of human work and speech The Culturally Savvy Christian Dick Staub,2008-09-09 In The Culturally Savvy Christian his incisive critique of contemporary culture and religion Dick Staub concludes that though it is influential American popular culture is generally superficial diversionary mindless and celebrity driven spiritually delusional moralistic therapeutic and deistic and soulless sustained not by art craft and ideas but by the mad pursuit of profit propped up by marketing and technology Similarly American Christianity has devolved into its own mindless diversionary and celebrity driven superficiality Because humans are created in God's image with spiritual intellectual creative moral and relational capacities we long for more yet the true seeker faces the lose lose alternatives of a soul numbing culture and a vacuous Christianity lite The renaissance we need in both faith and culture will originate in a deep spiritual renewal that restores God's image in us and creates a new breed of culturally savvy thoughtful creatives who rekindle the spiritual intellectual and creative legacy of Christians as enrichers of culture Arts Ministry Michael J. s culture Christianity has an image problem While the culture we inhabit presents us with an increasingly anti Christian and disenchanted position the church in the West has not helped its case by becoming anti intellectual fragmented and out of touch with the relevancy of Jesus to all aspects of contemporary life The muting of the Christian voice its imagination and its collective conscience have diminished the prospect of having a genuine missionary encounter with others today Cultural apologetics attempts to demonstrate not only the truth of the Gospel but also its desirability by reestablishing Christianity as the answer that satisfies our three universal human longings truth goodness and beauty In Cultural Apologetics philosopher and professor Paul Gould sets forth a fresh and uplifting model for cultural engagement rooted in the biblical account of Paul's speech in Athens which details practical steps for establishing Christianity as both true and beautiful reasonable and satisfying You ll be introduced to The idea of cultural apologetics as distinct from traditional apologetics The path from disenchantment with how we understand reality to re enchantment with the reality of the spiritual nature of things The practical tools of good cultural engagement conscience reason and imagination Equip yourself to see and help others see the world as it is through the lens of the Spirit deeply beautiful mysterious and sacred With creative insights Cultural Apologetics prepares readers to share a vision of the Christian faith that is both plausible and desirable offering clarity for those who have become disoriented in the haze of modern Western culture A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon,2005

Beholding Beauty Jason R. McConnell, 2022-03-15 Beholding Beauty Worshiping God through the Arts casts a vision for how the church can integrate a theology of beauty and aesthetics into its worship practices Unlike other books that only explore beauty and aesthetic in the abstract Beholding Beauty is a practical theology that inspires Christians to intentionally incorporate the arts into their everyday lives and their church's weekly worship services It is specifically designed for pastors and worship leaders who wish to craft theologically coherent aesthetically invigorating and artistically stimulating worship services and for all Christians who desire to contemplate the nature of beauty and art from a biblical theological and liturgical perspective Whether you are an accomplished artist or a novice to the art world this book will deepen your understanding of God as the original artist who uniquely calls human beings to cocreate with him It will challenge your presuppositions and convictions about the place of beauty and art in the Christian life and the life of the church It encourages Christian artists to be even more creative and prolific and it compels non artists to consider the artistic gifts and talents God has given them The Artistic Sphere Roger D. Henderson, Marleen Hengelaar-Rookmaaker, 2024-01-02 The Neo Calvinist tradition is well equipped to offer wisdom on the arts to the whole body of Christ Edited by art scholar Roger Henderson and Marleen Hengelaar Rookmaaker daughter of Hans Rookmaaker this volume brings together history philosophy and theology to consider the relationship between the arts and the Neo Calvinist tradition Redeeming Vision Elissa Yukiko Weichbrodt, 2023-03-21 Christianity Today 2024 Award of Merit Culture and the Arts The Gospel Coalition 2023 Book Award Arts Culture We are formed by the images we view From classical art to advertisements and from news photos to social media the images we look at mold our ideas of race gender and class They shape how we love God and our neighbor This practical guide helps us look closely at and understand how a wide variety of images make meaning as aesthetic and cultural objects Elissa Yukiko Weichbrodt teaches us how to learn from art rather than critique it and how to respond to images in Christian ways allowing them to positively transform us and how we love The book includes twenty three images most in full color that range from classical European paintings to Central African sculpture from Chinese ink painting to political propaganda and from stark anthropological photographs to unconventional installations ThirdWay, 2001-02 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture It Was Good Ned Bustard, 2018 Like its companion predecessors It Was Good Performing Arts to the Glory of God is both practical and theological It's no cliché that artists struggle to find their way in an increasingly pragmatic niche culture even more so for Christians in the performing arts The latter group finding themselves largely misunderstood and vocationally marginalized by the Church After all what true kingdom good comes from spending valuable time becoming a dancer As it turns out it s not a waste of time at all Especially so for the only audience who should matter Jesus As the title says let it all be done to the Glory of God
