It Was No Accident One Family's Life Interrupted By Suicide:

It Was No Accident Trish Nelson, 2013-10 It was shortly before 5 p.m. on Memorial Day 2007 when Trish Nelson came running out of her house at 10 Oxford Road in the village of Goshen New York and stood screaming in the middle of the street Her hands were covered in blood and so was the cell phone she was holding Just three days after having her husband Howard evaluated for potential suicide intent and declared not at risk Trish arrived home to find him with a gunshot wound to his right temple Their long talks about Howard's depression and pain came to an abrupt end that day when he decided he was done talking and finished with living The end of Howard's life was the beginning of a grim new life for his family Trish and her grief-stricken children twelve-year-old Trisha and fourteen-year-old Luke faced the daunting task of rebuilding a life interrupted by the suicide of the man who had been the center of their lives It Was No Accident is the brutally honest account of one man's suicide and the devastation he left in his wake Beyond that however it is a tale of love loss survival triumph and faith in God told by the people who knew and loved Howard Nelson the best his wife and children

A Life Interrupted: Essays in honour of the lives and legacies of Christof Heyns Frans Viljoen, Charles Fombad, Dire Tladi, Ann Skelton, Magnus Killander, 2022-01-10 About the publication This volume of essays A life interrupted essays in honour of the lives and legacies of Christof Heyns honours Christof Heyns renowned human rights lawyer advocate activist and educator but also down to earth family man friend and colleague Christof's sudden and most untimely passing on 28 March 2021 deeply saddened those close to him but also evinced an outpouring of grief from the national and international human rights community His passing brought a deep sense of loss in part because at age 62 he was fully engaged in contributing to the betterment of society and still had so much more to give His is a life interrupted But at the same time looking back over the varied lives he lived he had already left his mark in so many ways His influences and impacts are manifold and magical This collection not only testifies to the legacy that he has left us but also to the ongoing efforts of many to continue building on his legacy This collection contains two sets of essays by family members friends colleagues collaborators and students Part A contains essays of a more reflective and personal nature while the contributions in Part B link to the scholarly or academic themes Christof had worked on and explored including international human rights systems international law the right to life freedom of association international humanitarian law the impact of human rights treaties constitutionalism and legal philosophy However a neat distinction between the personal and professional is not possible in respect of such a warm generous and enthusiastic person as Christof Most of the essays in Part A integrate some of Christof's professional and academic achievements while many of the essays in Part B also reflect on Christof as a person The editors all based at the Faculty of Law UP are colleagues and friends who worked closely with Christof Frans Viljoen succeeded Christof as Director of the Centre for Human Rights Christof was his doctoral supervisor mentor and research collaborator Charles Fombad worked with Christof at ICLA and took over as ICLA Director after Christof's passing Dire Tladi an ICLA fellow had his office just across from Christof in ICLA

As member of the International Law Commission he shared with Christof high level engagement with the UN While Christof served on the Human Rights Committee his colleague Ann Skelton serves on the Committee on the Rights of the Child Magnus Killander worked closely with Christof as co author and co editor Christof was also his doctoral supervisor The publication date of this book is 10 January 2022 which is the date marking 63 years since Christof s birth The publisher is the Pretoria University Law Press PULP of which Christof was also a founder

Death and Chronic Illness in the Family

Peter Titelman,Sydney K. Reed,2018-07-27 What does it mean to be present and accounted for when a family member is facing chronic illness or death How does one define a self in relation to the ill or dying member and the family Rooted in Murray Bowen s family systems theory this edited volume provides conceptual ideas and applications useful to clinicians who work with families facing chronic illness or the death of a member The text is divided into four parts Part I provides a detailed overview of Bowen s theory perspectives on chronic illness and death and includes Murray Bowen s seminal essay Family Reaction to Death In Parts II and III chapter authors draw upon Bowen theory to intimately explore their families reactions to and experiences with death and chronic illness The final part uses case studies from contributors clinical practices to aid therapists in using Bowen systems perspectives in their work with clients The chapters in this volume provide a rich and broad range of clinical application and personal experience by professionals who have substantial knowledge of and training in Bowen theory Death and Chronic Illness in the Family is an essential resource for those interested in understanding the impact of death and loss in their professional work and in their personal lives

Unexpected Lives

Meredith Beeler,2016-07-16 When Dr Andrew Smith found CIA agent Eleanor Wright beaten in an alleyway he knew he had to protect her Neither of them could have guessed just how far the tangles of their love would reach or what their choices would cost them and the ones they love Book Two Staff Sergeant Robert Wright was looking forward to going home to Tennessee After being away for ten years the future of peace and quiet laid out in front of him was promising He was not expecting the truth regarding his sisters life nor the beautiful and innocent red haired woman tied so thoroughly to Eleanor Robert must deal with lifes unexpected twists and turns as well as the ghosts of his past But will he be able to overcome his fears Book Three Joshua Smith is about to celebrate his fortieth birthday but not in the way he planned Instead of being surrounded by his family on the sunny shores of California he is alone drunk and barely stumbling through each day When an unexpected woman shows up on his doorstep Joshua feels his bones begin to thaw But the gorgeous blonde has her own tragic past As the two of them struggle to find their footing in each others lives they discover that the horrors of their pasts have not truly been laid to rest

When Babel Tower Is Falling Down Alexander Raju,2014-09-16

When Babel Tower Is Falling Down is a domestic novel from the author of the allegorical novels The Haunted Man 1997 and Upon This Bank and Shoal 2008 which makes us rethink about the beauty of natural human relationships presently contaminated by the craze for individual freedom We live in a world in which the voice of modern education has taught us to ignore the sanctity of social life in general and of conjugal life in particular and compelled us to follow the animal instincts of mere survival We failed to realize the significance of abstinence self control and sacrifice misunderstood the blessings of rationality considered sex as a mere biological need and sought the means of selfish opportunism to gain pleasure We accepted our mental perversions as natural guidelines for a satisfied individual life and forgot the value of disciplined freedom in the attainment of conjugal bliss and happiness The conjugal life of Rajesh and his paranoid wife Geetha is the pivot around which more than three hundred real or fictitious persons create a social milieu portraying the agony and misery faced by modern families If the Tower of Babel was an attempt made by man to reach heaven the builders had to face physical emotional and intellectual impediments Here the Tower of Babel stands as a symbol of human efforts to attain heavenly conjugal bliss and Language as the divine gift given to prudent couples at times leading individuals to equivocation to reciprocal understanding or misunderstanding We live in a world where every individual is aware of the limitations of language We are confused and we misunderstand each other to the instability of language and undecidability of meaning We ignore the fact that our life and experiences are governed by certain ideologies which are built into our language and thereby language is no longer a reliable mode of communication From the heart of every man and woman comes the deep sigh Oh God I m helpless I can t communicate with my spouse When the partners in family life fail to understand each other s language this Babel Tower falls down Through the nostalgic experiences of the narrator in between two flights from Ethiopia to India and back the novel brings out certain tragic realities to remind the readers about the very delicate issues akin to successful family life Alexander Raju s novel When Babel Tower Is Falling Down is a valuable contribution to Indian English Diasporic Literature
