Italia Civiltà E Cultura:

Italia: Civiltà e Cultura Paola Lorenzi, Luisetta Chomel, 2009-03-16 Italia Civiltà e Cultura offers a comprehensive description of historical and cultural development on the Italian peninsula. This project was developed to provide students and professors with a flexible and easy to read reference book about Italian civilization and cultural studies also appropriate for cinema and Italian literature classes. This text is intended for students pursuing a minor or a major in Italian studies and serves as an important learning tool with its all inclusive vision of Italy. Each chapter includes thematic itineraries to promote active class discussion and textual comprehension. Check questions to guide students through the reading and understanding of the subject matter. Scrittori D'Italia Natale Busetto, 1929 Handbook of Medieval Studies Albrecht

Classen, 2010-11-29 This interdisciplinary handbook provides extensive information about research in medieval studies and its most important results over the last decades. The handbook is a reference work which enables the readers to quickly and purposely gain insight into the important research discussions and to inform themselves about the current status of research in the field. The handbook consists of four parts. The first large section offers articles on all of the main disciplines and discussions of the field. The second section presents articles on the key concepts of modern medieval studies and the debates therein. The third section is a lexicon of the most important text genres of the Middle Ages. The fourth section provides an international bio bibliographical lexicon of the most prominent medievalists in all disciplines. A comprehensive bibliography rounds off the compendium. The result is a reference work which exhaustively documents the current status of research in medieval studies and brings the disciplines and experts of the field together. Guilds, Markets and Work Regulations in Italy, 16th-19th Centuries Alberto Guenzi, 2016-12-05 The purpose of this volume is to provide a conspectus of current research on the history of guilds and corporations in Italy in the period from the Renaissance to the end of the 19th century. Particular aims are to examine the relationship between guilds manufacturing entrepreneurship and economic development and their impact on urban society and social welfare. The work derives from a major project set up in 1994 the results were discussed at a conference in Rome in September 1997 and formed the basis for a further presentation by Professor Carlo Poni at the 12th International Economic History Conference in Seville. The papers are grouped into three sections dealing with the guild system in urban areas case studies of individual guilds and conflicts and their role in mutual aid and assistance. Specially translated for this volume they trace for the English speaking world a rich picture of the history of the Italian guild system in the modern era and its movement from magnificence to decline. Burial and Social Change in First Millennium BC Italy Elisa Perego, Rafael Scopacasa, 2016-11-30 In the first millennium BC communities in Italy underwent crucial transformations which scholars have often subsumed under the heading of state formation namely increased social stratification the centralization of political power and in some cases urbanization. Most research has tended to approach the phenomenon of state formation and social change in relation to specific territorial dynamics of growth and expansion.

changing modes of exploitation of food and other resources over time and the adoption of selected socio ritual practices by the ruling elites in order to construct and negotiate authority In contrast comparatively little attention has been paid to the question of how these key developments resonated across the broader social transect and how social groups other than ruling elites both promoted these changes and experienced their effects The chief aim of this collection of 14 papers is to harness innovative approaches to the exceptionally rich mortuary evidence of first millennium BC Italy in order to investigate the roles and identities of social actors who either struggled for power and social recognition or were manipulated and exploited by superior authorities in a phase of tumultuous sociopolitical change throughout the entire Mediterranean basin Contributors provide a diverse range of approaches in order to examine how power operated in society how it was exercised and resisted and how this can be studied through mortuary evidence Section 1 addresses the construction of identity by focusing mainly on the manipulation of age ethnic and gender categories in society in regions and sites that reached notable power and splendor in first millennium BC Italy These include Etruria Latium Campania and the rich settlement of Verucchio in Emilia Romagna Each paper in Section 2 offers a counterpoint to a contribution in Section 1 with an overall emphasis on scholarly multivocality and the multiplicity of the theoretical approaches that can be used to read the archaeological evidence

Cultural Heritage and Value Creation Gaetano M. Golinelli, 2014-09-01 Informed by systems thinking this book explores new perspectives in which culture and management are harmoniously integrated and cultural heritage is interpreted both as an essential part of the social and economic context and as an expression of community identity The combination of a multidisciplinary approach methodological rigor and reference to robust empirical findings in the fertile field of analysis of UNESCO's contribution mean that the book can be considered a reference for the management of cultural heritage It casts new light on the complex relation of culture and management which has long occupied both scholars and practitioners and should enable the development of new pathways for value creation The book is based on research conducted within the framework of the Consorzio Universitario di Economia Industriale e Manageriale University Consortium for Industrial and Managerial Economics a network of universities businesses and public and private institutions that is dedicated to the production and dissemination of knowledge in the field This volume will be of interest to all who are involved in the study and management of the cultural heritage

The Oxford Handbook of Pre-Roman Italy (1000-49 BCE) Marco Maiuro, Jane Botsford Johnson, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Pre Roman Italy provides a comprehensive account of the many peoples who lived on the Italian peninsula during the last millennium BCE Written by more than fifty authors the book describes the diversity of these indigenous cultures their languages interactions and reciprocal influences It gives emphasis to Greek colonization the rise of aristocracies technological innovations and the spread of literacy which provided the urban texture that shaped the history of the Italian peninsula

Civiltà Villanoviana ed Etrusca Luciano Pallottini, IL SUD E L'INGANNO DEL RISORGIMENTO (La Verità sul Risorgimento Italiano) GIACOMO CASOLE, 2011-09-16 La storia del

Sud dopo il Risorgimento una storia travagliata e mistificata I vincitori piemontesi di quello sporco conflitto fratricida hanno cercato di presentare in tutti i modi un Meridione sporco brutto e cattivo che loro erano riusciti a conquistare Ma la verità dei fatti ben altra e diversa e questo libro ne svela le retroscena Authoritarianism and Corporatism in Europe and Latin America António Costa Pinto, Federico Finchelstein, 2018-11-02 What drove the horizontal spread of authoritarianism and corporatism between Europe and Latin America in the 20th century What processes of transnational diffusion were in motion and from where to where In what type of critical junctures were they adopted and why did corporatism largely transcend the cultural background of its origins What was the role of intellectual politicians in the process This book will tackle these issues by adopting a transnational and comparative research design encompassing a wide range of countries The Scriptorium and Library at Monte Cassino, 1058-1105 Francis Newton, 1999-04-29 In all the history of hand written books one of the most distinctive and handsome scripts is that of the abbey of Monte Cassino This study examines for the first time in detail the development of this script during the Abbey's greatest period of wealth and influence under Desiderius abbot 1058-1087 and his successor Oderisius abbot 1087-1105 The characteristic Cassinese hand was established long before but in this period it was transformed into what is today considered its classic form The present study rests on a fresh examination of many details of the Beneventan South Italian script in aspects incompletely studied before It aims to provide a new history of Monte Cassino as a writing centre and to offer a context for many unique or valuable texts manuscripts that it processed

Dependency and Social Inequality in Pre-Roman Italy Martin Bentz, Patrick Zeidler, 2024-10-21 In the past most studies on Pre Roman societies in Italy 1st millennium BCE focused on the elites their representation and cultural contacts The aim of this volume is to look at dependent and marginalized social groups which are less visible and often even difficult to define slaves servants freedmen captives foreigners athletes women children etc The methodological challenges connected to the study of such heterogeneous and scattered sources are addressed Is the evidence representative enough for defining different forms of dependencies Can we rely on written and pictorial sources or do they only reflect Greek and Roman views and iconographic conventions Which social groups can't be traced in the literary and archaeological record For the investigation of this topic we combined historical and epigraphical studies Greek and Roman literary sources Etruscan inscriptions with material culture studies images sanctuaries necropoleis including anthropological and bioarchaeological methods These new insights open a new chapter in the study of dependency and social inequality in the societies of Pre Roman Italy The Eerdmans Encyclopedia of Early Christian Art and Archaeology Finney, 2017 One of the most widely respected theological dictionaries put into one volume abridged form Focusing on the theological meaning of each word the abridgment contains English keywords for each entry tables of English and Greek keywords and a listing of the relevant volume and page numbers from the unabridged work at the end of each article or section The Vatican and Mussolini's Italy Lucia Ceci, 2016-10-05 Lucia Ceci reconstructs the relationship between the Catholic Church and Fascism

New sources from the Vatican Archives throw fresh light on individual aspects of this complex relationship the accession of Mussolini to power the war in Ethiopia the racial laws the comparison between Pius XI and Pius XII This book offers a comprehensive reconstruction of this encounter explaining the criteria that led Catholics to support a dictatorial warmongering and racist regime In contrast to the traditional periodization the history begins with the childhood of Mussolini in the final years of the nineteenth century and ends with the sudden collapse of his puppet regime in 1945 This means to some extent placing in a different light the exceptional nature of the ventennio The Italian original L'interesse superiore Il Vaticano e l'Italia di Mussolini has won the Friuli Storia Prize for Studies of Contemporary History Breve

Dizionario Di Politica Europea. Ediz. Italiana E Inglese Marco Marazzi e Stefania Schipani, 2014-04-29 Come si struttura l'attuale Unione europea Quali sono le sue caratteristiche e come deve modificarle se vuole compiere davvero un salto di qualità per portare a compimento il disegno originario di una terra che sia culla di nazioni diverse ma vicine per diventare una Europa unita e rappresentativa degli Stati e dei cittadini in una parola Federale L'Europa di oggi una grande porta con tante serrature ma per trovare l'Europa del futuro e guardare oltre bisogna aprirle tutte e di tutte trovare le chiavi Ecco il perché di questo libro che fotografa alcuni dei principali aspetti che caratterizzano la nostra Europa attuale ognuno dei quali una serratura da aprire e quelle che proponiamo sono per noi le chiavi giuste Le chiavi di una Federazione europea How is the European Union structured What are its features and how should it change to take that qualitative step and achieve the original idea of a land that is the cradle of different but close nations and turn itself into a united Europe which represents the States but also the citizens In one word a Federation Today's Europe is a great door with many locks to discover the Europe of the future and look ahead of us we need to find all the keys and open all these doors This is why we wrote this book which takes a picture of some of the main features of today's Europe each one of which is a lock that needs to be opened and for which we try to suggest the right keys The keys of our European federation Storia Della

Letteratura Italiana: L'Ottocento Emilio Cecchi, Natalino Sapegno, 1965 Cultural Transfer through Translation, 2010-01-01 Given that the dissemination of enlightened thought in Europe was mostly effected through translations the present collection of essays focuses on how its cultural adaptation took place in various national contexts For the first time the theoretical model of cultural transfer Espagne Werner is applied to the eighteenth century The intercultural dynamics of the Enlightenment become manifest in the transformation process between the original and target cultures be it by way of acculturation creative enhancement or misunderstanding Resulting in shifts of meaning translations offer a key not just to contemporary translation practice but to the discursive network of the European Enlightenment in general The case studies united here explore both how translations contributed to the transnational standardisation of certain key concepts values and texts and how they reflect national specifications of enlightened discourses Hence the volume contributes to Enlightenment studies at least as much as to historical translation studies Death embodied Zoë L. Devlin, Emma-Jayne

Graham,2015-06-30 In April 1485 a marble sarcophagus was found on the outskirts of Rome It contained the remains of a young Roman woman so well preserved that she appeared to have only just died and the sarcophagus was placed on public view attracting great crowds Such a find reminds us of the power of the dead body to evoke in the minds of living people be they contemporary survivors or mourners or distanced from the remains by time a range of emotions and physical responses ranging from fascination to fear and from curiosity to disgust Archaeological interpretations of burial remains can often suggest that the skeletons which we uncover and therefore usually associate with past funerary practices were what was actually deposited in graves rather than articulated corpses The choices made by past communities or individuals about how to cope with a dead body in all of its dynamic and constituent forms and whether there was reason to treat it in a manner that singled it out positively or negatively as different from other human corpses provide the stimulus for this volume The nine papers provide a series of theoretically informed but not constrained case studies which focus predominantly on the corporeal body in death The aims are to take account of the active presence of dynamic material bodies at the heart of funerary events and to explore the questions that might be asked about their treatment to explore ways of putting fleshed bodies back into our discussions of burials and mortuary treatment as well as interpreting the meaning of these activities in relation to the bodies of both deceased and survivors and to combine the insights that body centered analysis can produce to contribute to a more nuanced understanding of the role of the body living and dead in past cultures

Rome, Ravenna, and Venice, 750-1000 Veronica West-Harling,2020-08-20 The richest and most politically complex regions in Italy in the earliest middle ages were the Byzantine sections of the peninsula thanks to their links with the most coherent early medieval state the Byzantine empire This comparative study of the histories of Rome Ravenna and Venice examines their common Byzantine past since all three escaped incorporation into the Lombard kingdom in the late 7th and early 8th centuries By 750 however Rome and Ravenna s political links with the Byzantine Empire had been irrevocably severed Thus did these cities remain socially and culturally heirs of Byzantium How did their political structures social organisation material culture and identities change Did they become part of the Western political and ideological framework of Italy This study identifies and analyses the ways in which each of these cities preserved the structures of the Late Antique social and cultural world or in which they adapted each and every element available to them to their own needs at various times and in various ways to create a new identity based partly on their Roman heritage and partly on their growing integration with the rest of medieval Italy It tells a story which encompasses the main contemporary narratives documentary evidence recent archaeological discoveries and discussions on art history it follows the markers of status and identity through titles names ethnic groups liturgy and ritual foundation myths representations symbols and topographies of power to shed light on a relatively little known area of early medieval Italian history

Archaeology of the Communist Era Ludomir R Lozny,2016-12-06 This book contributes to better recognition and comprehension of the interconnection between archaeology and political pressure especially imposed by the totalitarian communist regimes It explains why under such political conditions some archaeological reasoning and practices were resilient while new ideas leisurely penetrated the local scenes It attempts to critically evaluate the political context and its impact on archaeology during the communist era world wide and contributes to better perception of the relationship between science and politics in general This book analyzes the pressures inflicted on archaeologists by the overwhelmingly potent political environment which stimulates archaeological thought and controls the conditions for professional engagement Included are discussions about the perception of archaeology and its findings by the public
