Jaarboek Der Sociale En Economische Geschiedenis Van Leiden En Omstreken:

The Civilising Offensive Christoph De Spiegeleer, 2018-12-03 This volume offers a multifaceted selection of studies on 19th century Belgian reformers and initiatives they instigated to solve the social question by civilising and moralising the lower classes Around 1850 Belgium was continental Europe's most heavily industrialised state From the mid century until the Belle époque many international social reform associations were based in Belgium as well as their main international actors This book aims to place the history of social moral and educational reform in Belgium during the long 19th century within a broader European perspective This collection of contributions by both young and established scholars from various disciplinary backgrounds not only fills some gaps in Belgian historiography but also offers a better understanding of broad epochal processes such as the bourgeois civilising offensive the expansion of educational action and the historical growth of welfare states

Until recently historians of reading have concentrated on book ownership and trying to map out a history of who read what The reading experience has been a subject more difficult to research As has been pointed out before egodocuments can be valuable sources in this case Following this lead Literacy in Everyday Life focuses upon four early modern Dutch diaries in which readers document their daily life and in which they recount their reading In the analysis other ways in which these four readers communicated are also addressed especially speech and writing This book therefore provides an insight into the possible uses of literacy and the interaction between the printed written and spoken word in the early modern Dutch Republic Gendered Food Practices from

Seed to Waste Bettina Barbara Bock,Jessica Duncan,2017 In nearly all societies gender has been and continues to be central in defining roles and responsibilities related to the production manufacturing provisioning eating and disposal of food The 2016 Yearbook of Women s History presents a collection of articles that look into food related practices and shifting relations of gender across food systems Authors explore changing understandings of food related activities at the intersection of food and gender across time and space Articles about the lives of market women in late medieval food trades in the Low Countries the practices of activist women in the garbage movement of prewar Tokyo the way grain storage technologies affect women in Zimbabwe through to the impact of healthy eating blogs in the digital age ,1998 Prosecuting Women Ariadne Schmidt,2020-04-14 In the early modern period women played a prominent role in crime At times they even made up half of all defendants Female criminality was a typically urban phenomenon Why do we find so many women before the Dutch criminal courts In Prosecuting Women Ariadne Schmidt analyses the relation between female crime and the urban context by comparing prosecution patterns in various Dutch cities Prosecuting Women looks beyond the bare figures examines the personal circumstances of criminal women and shows how women s illegal activities were linked to the socio economic context of the locality and varied over time The local interplay between crime and the responses of the authorities gave every city a specific dynamic in its pattern of prosecuted crime Jaarboek (1998) der sociale en economische geschiedenis van Leiden en omstreken Dirck van Eck-Stichting,1999
