Moroccan Dreams Claudio Minca, Lauren Wagner, 2016-08-02 Morocco has long been a mythic land firmly rooted in the European colonial imagination For more than a century it has been appropriated by travellers explorers writers and artists It is just these images and imaginings that are now being reconstructed for nostalgic consumption In Moroccan Dreams Claudio Minca examines this aestheticised re-enactment of the colonial exploring the ways in which Moroccans themselves have become complicit in the re-writing of their homes and lives Richly illustrated the book provides a fascinating journey that will engage and delight all those enamoured of Morocco and its extraordinary geographies

Urban Restructuring, Power and Capitalism in the Tourist City Khalid Madhi, 2019-04-17 The book focuses on the processes of urban restructuring power relations and the political economy of touristic authenticity Through an in-depth analysis of Marrakesh Morocco the book proposes a comprehensive analytic framework It highlights the issues of post-coloniality ideology heritage commodification subjectivity and counter-conduct in the shadow of global capitalism It explores how power relations and political economy have shaped the city of Marrakesh over the past few decades formulating new subjectivities It reveals how urban policy's sole purpose is to boost tourism in the city bringing into question the long-term resilience and success of tourism as an economic activity and a policy choice This book considers how the well-being of city residents is submitted to such policies conforming to certain forms of appropriation of land culture and memory The example of Morocco helps us understand a phenomenon affecting many other cities internationally This book will be valuable to academics and practitioners across disciplines including geography political science urban planning and architecture
