Managing Geriatric Health Services Alice

McDonnell, 2013 Managing Geriatric Health Services provides an overview of the many disciplines related to geriatric health administration as well as specialty topics in long term care. Ideal for students studying geriatric health services administration as well as active professionals currently working in the field, Managing Geriatric Health Services thoroughly examines core topics such as administration, nursing, and rehabilitative therapies. It also covers specialty topics including spirituality, dementia, quality assurance, oral history, and ethical issues. This text examines the various jobs within the continuum of care from an administrative and management standpoint and also looks at the various roles or disciplines within long term care and the specific challenges to each. With contributions from experienced professionals in the field, this book includes an entire section of interdisciplinary case study examples and reflection exercises. Individual chapters include learning objectives, key terms, chapter specific case studies, and chapter summaries. Key Features: Discussion questions in each chapter engage the reader in learning and understanding the topics presented. Interdisciplinary case studies allow the reader to see the practical application of the concepts presented. Chapters are supported by current research from prominent experts in the field. A unique chapter on Oral Histories explores the aging process and the value of reminiscing. Instructor Resources: PowerPoint Lecture Slides, Test Bank.

Changing the U.S. Health Care System Gerald F. Kominski, 2013-11-06

The Fourth Edition of Changing the U.S. Health Care System addresses the key topics in health care policy and management, presenting evidence-based views of current issues. Each chapter is written by an expert in the field who integrates evidence to explain the current condition and presents support for needed change. The book examines all the levers in the setting and implementation of health policy and includes extensive coverage of the impact of the Affordable Care Act, particularly on Medicare, Medicaid, and large and small group insurance markets. Also new to this edition is expanded coverage of nursing, disease management, mental health, women's health, children's health, and care for the homeless.

Aging Harry R. Moody, Jennifer R. Sasser, 2020-07-16

Winner of the 2022 Textbook Academic Authors Association's The McGuffey Longevity Award, Aging: Concepts and Controversies is structured to encourage a style of teaching and learning that goes beyond conveying facts and methods. This innovative text focuses on controversies and questions rather than on assimilating facts or creating a single correct view about aging or older people. Drawing on their extensive expertise, authors Harry R. Moody and Jennifer R. Sasser first provide an overview of aging in three domains: aging over the life course, health care, and socioeconomic trends. Each section then includes data and conceptual frameworks helping students to make sense of the controversies and understand their origin, engage in critical thinking, and develop their own views. The Tenth Edition of this hallmark textbook includes amplified discussions focused on differences, diversity, structural inequalities, and inclusion, as well as contemporary issues including climate change and immigration.
