From Trauma 2 Triumph Antoinette Spade, 2020-02-11 Love: What is it? Can a person describe love? Can love even be described? Throughout time it has been heard that love can be defined in different ways. That there are different types and styles. It has been heard that love could be defined as an attraction driven by the chemicals in our brains such as adrenaline, dopamine and serotonin; an infatuation, a feeling, an emotion, an action and even as much as a choice. In this book you will read of how a woman experienced the Storge, empathy, Philia, friendly, Eros, romantic types of love throughout her life at the onset of trauma that cost her identity, therefore leading her through life searching for the only type of love that not only covered all her mistakes and bad decisions but also experienced the only type of love that she needed called the Agape, unconditional type of love. The trauma Antoinette experienced stemmed from various types of abuse she went through during her childhood at which when she reached her teen years had prompted her to embark on different endeavors during those years into the adult years of her life. The most crucial and important type of love there is to be found by everyone including Antoinette. It was when she found that type of love did she realize that there really and truly was someone who did see her as a person, a human that noticed and loved her for who she was. Someone not only fully loved her but also fully knew her even when she was in her mother's womb. This love, my friend, was the love that she had been longing for searching for her whole life. It took for her to experience this love that she finally recognized someone was chasing her all along and didn't even know it. This love that was given to Antoinette was not merely because she was attracted by this someone, no, she was chosen by this someone because of the unconditional love that He had for her. He made a choice which is an action. He made a sacrifice for her but He knew He had to let her experience all that she did in order for her to find the love that she longed for. It has been 16 years since she has found this love and it hasn't faded away for her nor did it ever leave or hurt her not one time. Because of this very reason, Antoinette would like to share who gave her this love and let you know that this love is being given to you.

too I must assure you Antoinette is of NO exception to this very love by any means and she would just like to share her story with you in hopes that you will find this very same love too It doesn't matter who we are where we come from or even what we did in our life because we too are worth being loved the very same way that she was at all costs This love that Antoinette found was totally worth finding She found it so worthy that she is willingly choosing to share it with all of us in hopes of us accepting the value of our own worth to accept this very same love too Contact Information secretagent4jesus gmail com

A Woman's Worth Naomi Hafford - Smith, 2011-12-22 Do you feel like you have been robbed of the finer things in life Have you emptied out more of yourself into someone than what has been deposited in you Is the energy lost worth the results you have received I want to stir your mind on evaluating the core essence of who you are as an individual and how life's experiences can be shaped based on the journey you take to fulfillment This book will help you to make the necessary adjustments into living a fulfilled life appreciating your worth and value as a woman God created us in our original state as whole and complete Due to obstacles we sometimes face our character becomes chiseled into another image leaving us lost in our own world of hopelessness I pray the scriptural references in A Woman's Worth rejuvenate your soul heal your mind and restore your heart to love easily live life abundantly and strive to maintain balance Courage is the beat that initiates the heart to love again and prophecy is the tool that brings the masterpiece to life

Engendering Violence in Papua New Guinea Margaret Jolly, Christine Stewart, Carolyn Brewer, 2012-07-01 This collection builds on previous works on gender violence in the Pacific but goes beyond some previous approaches to domestic violence or violence against women in analysing the dynamic processes of engendering violence in PNG Engendering refers not just to the sex of individual actors but to gender as a crucial relation in collective life and the massive social transformations ongoing in PNG conversion to Christianity the development of extractive industries the implanting of introduced models of justice and the law and the spread of HIV Hence the collection examines issues of troubled masculinities as much as battered women and tries to move beyond the black and white binaries of blaming either tradition or modernity as the primary cause of gender violence It relates original scholarly research in the villages and towns of PNG to questions of policy and practice and reveals the complexities and contestations in the local translation of concepts of human rights It will interest undergraduate and graduate students in gender studies and Pacific studies and those working on the policy and practice of combating gender violence in PNG and elsewhere Century Path,1902

Walking the Line Alan Davey,2021-11-17 The rule of Jesus articulated in Matthew s Gospel is neither obscure nor archaic Jesus imperatives speak powerfully to the contemporary issues of our day and do so by illuminating a way of clarity simplicity and love Where populism demands separation Jesus promotes unity where institutionalism extols hierarchical power Jesus encourages humble service where individualism lauds immediate gratification Jesus asserts the path of sacrificial love Indeed as the Gospel of Matthew lays out the pathway that Jesus defines is one of awareness self knowledge and personal growth It is a way of generativity fruitfulness and abundance As we travel with Jesus in intimate conversation we walk the line in a rhythm that fosters advancement enjoyment and soulful acceptance
