Looking For Transwonderland Travels In Nigeria:

Looking for Transwonderland Noo Saro-Wiwa, 2012-09-01 A remarkable chronicle of a journey back to this West African nation after years of exile The New York Times Book Review Noo Saro Wiwa was brought up in England but every summer she was dragged back to visit her father in Nigeria a country she viewed as an annoying parallel universe where she had to relinquish all her creature comforts and sense of individuality After her father activist Ken Saro Wiwa was killed there she didn't return for several years Then she decided to come to terms with the country her father given his life for Traveling from the exuberant chaos of Lagos to the calm beauty of the eastern mountains from the eccentricity of a Nigerian dog show to the decrepit kitsch of the Transwonderland Amusement Park she explores Nigerian Christianity delves into the country's history of slavery examines the corrupting effect of oil and ponders the huge success of Nollywood She finds the country as exasperating as ever and frequently despairs at the corruption and inefficiency she encounters But she also discovers that it is far more beautiful and varied than she had ever imagined with its captivating thick tropical rain forest and ancient palaces and monuments and most engagingly and entertainingly its unforgettable people The author allows her love hate relationship with Nigeria to flavor this thoughtful travel journal lending it irony wit and frankness Kirkus Reviews Nigeria Richard Bourne, 2015-10-15 If you want to understand Nigeria's history in one succinct go this is a very good choice Noo Saro Wiwa Known as the African Giant Nigeria's story is complex and often contradictory How despite the ravages of colonialism civil war ongoing economic disappointment and most recently the Boko Haram insurgency has the country managed to stay together for a hundred years Why despite an abundance of oil mineral and agricultural wealth have so many of its people remained in poverty These are the key questions explored by Richard Bourne in this remarkable and wide ranging account of Nigeria's history from its creation in 1914 to the historic 2015 elections and beyond Featuring a wealth of original research and interviews this is an essential insight into the shaping of a country where despite the seemingly dashed optimism that was raised at independence there still remains hope the Nigeria project may still succeed On the move Aitor Ibarrola-Armendariz, Jon Ortiz de Urbina Arruabarrena, 2016-07-29 This volume brings together a selection of the papers and round tables delivered at the 39th AEDEAN Conference held at the University of Deusto in November 2015 The essays in On the Move Glancing Backwards to Build a Future in English Studies often begin with typically academic gestures such as retrieving a classic text and finding new ways of studying its genre or characterization or remarking how certain ungrammatical constructions have gone frequently unnoticed even in well known texts for various reasons or entangling oneself in contentions about the adequacy of dissecting a literary text or linguistic problem by using innovative analytical tools In all cases though there is the intention of putting forth certain views and notions that will help future scholars to deal in a better light with the dilemmas regularly encountered in literary linguistic and cultural studies The book opens with three essays by professors Bartholomae Pullum and R o who demonstrate not only their mastery in their respective subjects but also their ability to tailor their contents to multifarious audiences The next two sections represent the main body of the e book with nearly forty contributions on both literature and cultural studies Part II and language and linguistics Part III These short academic pieces are a representative showcase of the research being done lately in the different areas of expertise The last section of the volume gathers together the results of four research projects dealing with such engaging topics as postcolonial crime fiction or forgotten texts by Anglo writers about the Spanish Civil War It is hard to think of any potential reader schooled in English Studies who will not find something suitable to their interests and tastes in this volume

The Architecture of the Bight of Biafra Joseph Godlewski, 2024-03-06 The Architecture of the Bight of Biafra challenges linear assumptions about agency progress and domination in colonial and postcolonial cities adding an important sub Saharan case study to existing scholarship on globalization and modernity Intersected by small creeks rivulets and dotted with mangrove swamps the Bight of Biafra has a long history of decentralized political arrangements and intricate trading networks predating the emergence of the Atlantic world While indigenous merchants in the region were active participants in the transatlantic slave trading system they creatively resisted European settlement and maintained indigenous sovereignty until the middle of the nineteenth century Since few built artifacts still exist this study draws from a close reading of written sources travelers accounts slave traders diaries missionary memoirs colonial records and oral histories as well as contemporary fieldwork to trace transformations in the region's built environment from the sixteenth century to today With each chapter focusing on a particular spatial paradigm in this dynamic process this book uncovers the manifold and inventive ways in which actors strategically adapted the built environment to adjust to changing cultural and economic circumstances In parallel it highlights the ways that these spaces were rhetorically constructed and exploited by foreign observers and local agents Enmeshed in the history of slavery colonialism and the modern construction of race the spatial dynamics of the Biafran region have not been geographically delimited The central thesis of this volume is that these spaces of entanglement have been productive sites of Black identity formation involving competing and overlapping interests occupying multiple positions and temporalities and ensnaring real imagined and sometimes contradictory aims This book will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture architectural history urban geography African studies and Atlantic studies

Disrupting Africa Olufunmilayo B. Arewa, 2021-07-29 In the digital era many African countries sit at the crossroads of a potential future that will be shaped by digital era technologies with existing laws and institutions constructed under conditions of colonial and post colonial authoritarian rule In Disrupting Africa Olufunmilayo B Arewa examines this intersection and shows how it encompasses existing and new zones of contestation based on ethnicity religion region age and other sources of division Arewa highlights specific collisions between the old and the new including in the 2020 EndSARS protests in Nigeria which involved young people engaging with varied digital era technologies who provoked a violent response from rulers threatened by the prospect of political change In this groundbreaking work Arewa demonstrates how lawmaking and legal processes during and after colonialism continue to frame contexts in which digital technologies are created implemented regulated and used in Africa today Afropolitan Literature as World Literature James

Hodapp,2020-01-23 African literature has never been more visible than it is today Whereas Chinua Achebe Wole Soyinka and Ngugi wa Thiong'o defined a golden generation of African writers in the 20th century a new generation of Afropolitan writers including Chimamanda Adichie Teju Cole Taiye Selasi and NoViolet Bulawayo have taken the world by storm by snatching up prestigious awards and selling millions of copies of their works But what is the new increasingly fashionable and marketable Afropolitan vision of Africa's place in the world that they offer How does it differ from that of previous generations Why do some dissent Afropolitanism refuses to reinforce images of Africa in world media as merely poor war torn diseased and constantly falling into chaos By complicating the image of Africa as a hapless victim Afropolitanism focuses on the wide ranging influence Africa has on the world However some have characterized this kind of writing as light populist fare that panders to Western audiences Afropolitan Literature as World Literature examines the controversy surrounding Afropolitan literature in light of the unprecedented circulation of culture made possible by globalization and ultimately argues for expanding its geographic and temporal boundaries Home and Nation in Anglophone Autobiographies of Africa

Lena Englund,2023-10-21 This book looks at contemporary autobiographical works by writers with African backgrounds in relation to the idea of place It examines eight authors works Helen Cooper's The House at Sugar Beach Sisonke Msimang's Always Another Country Leila Ahmed's A Border Passage Noo Saro Wiwa's Looking for Transwonderland Douglas Rogers's The Last Resort Elamin Abdelmahmoud's Son of Elsewhere Clemantine Wamariya and Elizabeth Weil's The Girl Who Smiled Beads and Aminatta Forna's autobiographical writing to argue that place is particularly central to personal narrative in texts whose authors have migrated multiple times Spanning Liberia Nigeria Sierra Leone Egypt Rwanda Zambia and Zimbabwe this book interrogates the label African writing which has been criticized for ignoring local contexts It demonstrates how in their works these writers seek to reconnect with a bygone Africa often after complex experiences of political upheavals and personal loss The chapters also provide in depth analyses of key concepts related to place and autobiography place and privilege place and trauma and the relationship between place and nation Foundational African Writers Bhekizizwe

Peterson,Khwezi Mkhize,Makhosazana Xaba,2022 The essays in this collection were crafted in celebration of the centenaries in 2019 of Peter Abrahams Noni Jabavu Sibusiso Cyril Lincoln Nyembezi and Es'kia Mphahlele all of whom were born in 1919 All four centenarians lived rich and diverse lives across several continents In the years following the Second World War they produced more than half a century of foundational creative writing and literary criticism and made stellar contributions to institutions and repertoires of African and black arts and letters in South Africa and internationally The range of the centenarians imaginations critical analyses and social interventions spanned disciplinary divides This volume in the same spirit draws on approaches that are equally transdisciplinary Two aims thread through the contributors reflections on the complexities of black existence and of intellectual and cultural life in the twentieth century The first is the exploration of some of the centenarians key texts and cultural projects that shaped their legacies In doing so the volume contributors trace a number of divergent intellectual and aesthetic lineages in their works and organisational activities The second aim is a consideration of the ways in which these foundational writers legacies continue to resonate today confirming their status as crucial contributors to modern African and diasporic black arts and letters

The Many Worlds of Anglophone Literature Silvia Anastasijevic, Magdalena Pfalzgraf, Hanna Teichler, 2024-01-11 On what terms and concepts can we ground the comparative study of Anglophone literatures and cultures around the world today What if anything unites the novels of Witi Ihimaera the speculative fiction of Nnedi Okorafor the life writings by Stuart Hall and the emerging Anglophone Arab literature by writers like Omar Robert Hamilton This volume explores the globality of Anglophone fiction both as a conceptual framing and as a literary imaginary It highlights the diversity of lives and worlds represented in Anglophone writing as well as the diverse imaginations of transnational connections articulated in it Featuring a variety of internationally renowned scholars this book thinks through Anglophone literature not as a problematic legacy of colonial rule or as exoticizing commodity in a global literary marketplace but examines it as an inherently transcultural literary medium Contributors provide new insights into how it facilitates the articulation of divergent experiences of modernity and the critique of hierarchies and inequalities within among and beyond post colonial societies

The Looting Machine Tom Burgis, 2016-05-03 One of Financial Times Books of the Year 2015 The trade in oil gas gems metals and rare earth minerals wreaks havoc in Africa During the years when Brazil India China and the other emerging markets have transformed their economies Africa s resource states remained tethered to the bottom of the industrial supply chain While Africa accounts for about 30 per cent of the world s reserves of hydrocarbons and minerals and 14 per cent of the world s population its share of global manufacturing stood in 2011 exactly where it stood in 2000 at 1 percent In his first book The Looting Machine Tom Burgis exposes the truth about the African development miracle for the resource states it s a mirage The oil copper diamonds gold and coltan deposits attract a global network of traders bankers corporate extractors and investors who combine with venal political cabals to loot the states value And the vagaries of resource dependent economies could pitch Africa s new middle class back into destitution just as quickly as they climbed out of it The ground beneath their feet is as precarious as a Congolese mine shaft their prosperity could spill away like crude from a busted pipeline This catastrophic social disintegration is not merely a continuation of Africa s past as a colonial victim The looting now is accelerating as never before As global demand for Africa s resources rises a handful of Africans are becoming legitimately rich but the vast majority like the continent as a whole is being fleeced Outsiders tend to think of Africa as a great drain of philanthropy But look more closely at the resource industry and the relationship between Africa and the rest of the world looks rather different In 2010 fuel and mineral exports from Africa were worth 333 billion more than seven times the value of the aid that went in the opposite direction But who received the money For every Frenchwoman who dies in childbirth 100 die in Niger alone the former French colony whose uranium fuels France's nuclear reactors In petro states like Angola three quarters of government revenue comes from oil The government is not funded by the people and as result it is not beholden to them A score of African countries whose economies depend on resources are rentier states their people are largely serfs The resource curse is not merely some unfortunate economic phenomenon the product of an intangible force What is happening in Africa's resource states is systematic looting Like its victims its beneficiaries have names

Global Perspectives on Sports and Christianity Afe Adogame, Nick J. Watson, Andrew Parker, 2017-11-27 While the relationship between sport and religion is deeply rooted in history it continues to play a profound role in shaping modern day societies This edited collection provides an interdisciplinary exploration of this relationship from a global perspective making a major contribution to the religious social scientific and theological study of sport It discusses the dialectical interplay between sport and Christianity across diverse cultures extending beyond a Western perspective to include studies from Africa South America and Asia as well as Europe the UK and the US Containing contributions from leading experts within the field it reflects on key topics including race gender spirituality morality interfaith sport clubs and the significance of sport in public rituals of celebration and mourning Its chapters also examine violent sports such as boxing and mixed martial arts as well as reflecting on the cult of sporting celebrity and the theology of disability sport Truly international in scope Global Perspectives on Sports and Christianity is fascinating reading for all those interested in the study of sport sociology and religion

Assembling Exclusive Expertise Anna Leander, Ole Waever, 2018-07-06 This book looks at the worlding of the Global South in the process of assembling conflict resolution expertise Anna Leander Ole Waever and their contributors pursue this ambition by following the experts institutions databases and creative expressions that are assembled into conflict resolution expertise in the Global South Expertise shapes how conflicts in the Global South are understood and consequently dealt with Yet expertise is always and necessarily exclusive The exclusivity of expertise refers both to the fashionable the sophisticated and what counts and also to the exclusion of some people or views Assembled from a wealth of competing knowledges expertise is always both knowledgeable and ignorant The ambition of the volume is to explore how this exclusive expertise is assembled and in what ways it is therefore knowledgeable and ignorant of knowledges in of the Global South This work will be of significant interest to advanced students and scholars of conflict resolution peace research mediation and international relations and scholars of expertise
