Locating Shakespeare in the Twenty-First Century Gabrielle Malcolm, Kelli Marshall, 2012-03-15 The first decade of the new century has certainly been a busy one for diversity in Shakespearean performance and interpretation yielding for example global virtual digital interactive televisual and cinematic Shakespeares

In Locating Shakespeare in the Twenty First Century Gabrielle Malcolm and Kelli Marshall assess this active world of Shakespeare adaptation and commercialization as they consider both novel and traditional forms from experimental presentations in person and online and literal rewritings of the plays playwright to televised and filmic Shakespeares More specifically contributors in Locating Shakespeare in the Twenty First Century examine the BBC's Shakespeare Told series Canada's television program Slings and Arrows the Mumbai based film Maqbool and graphic novels in Neil Gaiman's Sandman series as well as the future of adaptation performance digitization and translation via such projects as National Theatre Live the Victoria and Albert Museum's Archive of Digital Performance and the British Library's online presentation of the complete Folios Other authors consider the place of Shakespeare in the classroom in the Kenneth Branagh canon in Jewish revenge films Quentin Tarantino's included in comic books in Young Adult literature and in episodes of the BBC's popular sci fi television program Doctor Who Ultimately this collection sheds light at least partially on where critics think Shakespeare is now and where he and his works might be going in the near future and long term One conclusion is certain however far we progress into the new century Shakespeare will be there Teaching Film Lucy Fischer, Patrice Petro, 2012-07-27

Film studies has been a part of higher education curricula in the United States almost since the development of the medium Although the study of film is dispersed across a range of academic departments programs and scholarly organizations film studies has come to be recognized as a field in its own right In an era when teaching and scholarship are increasingly interdisciplinary film studies continues to expand and thrive attracting new scholars and fresh ideas direction and research Given the dynamism of the field experienced and beginning instructors alike need resources for bringing the study of film into the classroom This volume will help instructors conceptualize contemporary film studies in pedagogical terms The first part of the volume features essays on theory and on representation including gender race and sexuality Contributors then examine the geographies of cinema and offer practical suggestions for structuring courses on national regional and transnational film Several essays focus on interdisciplinary approaches while others describe courses designed around genre film noir the musical mode animation documentary avant garde film or the formal elements of film such as sound music and mise en scene The volume closes with a section on film and media in the digital age in which contributors discuss the opportunities and challenges presented by access to resources media convergence and technological developments in the field Landscape and the Environment in Hollywood Film Ellen E. Moore, 2017-11-09 This book systematically explores how popular Hollywood film portrays environmental issues through various genres In so doing it reveals the influence exerted by media consolidation and the drive for profit on Hollywood's portrayal of the natural landscape which ultimately shapes how environmental problems and their solutions are presented to audiences Analysis is framed by a consideration of how cultural studies can make more theoretical and practical room for environmental concern thereby expanding its capacity for critical examination The book begins by introducing the theoretical underpinning of the research as it relates to cultural studies landscape and genre In the chapters that follow each genre is taken in turn starting with popular animated family films and progressing through spy thrillers eco thrillers science fiction Westerns superhero films and drama This book is ideal for students and scholars in a variety of disciplines including film environmental studies communication political economy and cultural studies Psychology at the Movies Skip Dine Young, 2012-04-09 Psychology at the Movies explores the insights to be gained by applying various psychological lenses to popular films including cinematic depictions of human behavior the psychology of filmmakers and the impact of viewing movies Uses the widest range of psychological approaches to explore movies the people who make them and the people who watch them Written in an accessible style with vivid examples from a diverse group of popular films such as The Silence of the Lambs The Wizard of Oz Star Wars Taxi Driver Good Will Hunting and A Beautiful Mind Brings together psychology film studies mass communication and cultural studies to provide an interdisciplinary perspective Features an extensive bibliography for further exploration of various research fields Indigenous African Language Media Phillip Mpofu, Israel Ayinla Fadipe, Thulani Tshabangu, 2023-04-26 The book contributes to the sparse academic literature on African and minority language media research It serves as a compendium of experiences activities and case studies on the use of native language media Chapters in this book make theoretical methodical and empirical contributions about indigenous African language media that are affected by structural factors of politics technology culture and economy and how they are creatively produced and appropriated by their audiences across African cultures and contexts This book explores indigenous African language media about media representations media texts and contents practice based activities audience reception and participation television popular culture and cinema peace and conflict resolution health and environmental crisis communication citizen journalism ethnic and identity formation beat analysis and investigative journalism and corporate communication There are hardly any similar works that focus on the various issues relating to this body of knowledge The book provides a valuable companion for scholars in various fields like communication media studies African studies African languages popular culture journalism health and environmental communication Theorizing Film Acting Aaron Taylor, 2012-10-02 This comprehensive collection provides theoretical accounts of the grounds and phenomenon of film acting The volume features entries by some of the most prominent scholars on film acting who collectively represent the various theoretical traditions that constitute the discipline of film studies Each section proposes novel ways of considering the recurring motifs in academic enquiries into film acting including 1 the mutually contingent problematic of description and interpretation 2 the intricacies of bodily dynamics and their reception by audiences 3 the significance of star performance and 4 the impact of evolving technologies and film styles on acting traditions STARZ Spartacus Antony Augoustakis, 2016-11-16 Gladiator rebel slave leader revolutionary the figure of Spartacus frequently serves as an icon of resistance against oppression in modern political movements while his legend has inspired numerous receptions over the centuries in many different media

With its visually excessive style of graphic sex and CGI enhanced violence the four seasons of the premium cable television series STARZ Spartacus tells the story of the historical Thracian gladiator who led a slave uprising against the Roman Republican army from 73 to 71 BC STARZ Spartacus Reimagining an Icon on Screen is the first scholarly volume to explore the entirety of this critically acclaimed and commercially successful drama series This new volume brings together pioneering and provocative essays written by an international cast of leading classical scholars and experienced media critics Turning a sharp eye on the series historical framework visual and narrative style thematic overtones and interaction with contemporary popular culture this volume also engages with the authenticity of the production and considers its place in the tradition of epic films and television series set in ancient Rome At once both erudite and entertaining STARZ Spartacus Reimagining an Icon on Screen is an invaluable resource for both students and scholars eager to confront a new Spartacus as the hero of the slave revolt is recast for a twenty first century audience

Moving On in Ministry Tim Ling, 2014-08-19 While the Church of England provides practical resources for clergy as they make changes in their careers very little theological reflection has been done around this subject Not all change is welcome and driving factors differ from those in secular employment This important volume explores key questions to consider at points of transition
