From Shepherd to Ruler: Leadership Lessons Inspired by David Vinnie Venturella, 2022-02-01 David is one of the most perfect characters on which to do a study of leadership We can learn a lot from David's life We can learn what to do and what not to do I think both are important No one is perfect and learning those tough lessons on someone else's behalf is as important as learning the more positive ones David was God's anointed He started as a shepherd and through God's leadership he became a ruler of a nation and a shepherd over His people David did not set out to be Israel's king He did not set out to be a leader He was thrust into circumstances not of his making He went through his own crucible time and time again Through each experience he put more tools in his toolbox so to speak Although not perfect by any measure his zeal for God and faith in God became the standard that all future kings of Israel would be measured against We can learn a lot from current and prior leaders regardless of where we find them Like the cook making a stew you choose which ingredients and how much to use and learn what works and what doesn't work for you along the way as you perfect your recipe

Lord Deliver Me from Negative Self Talk 2 Lynn Davis, 2014-08-03 Can you imagine what would happen if we as women united toward the common goal of eliminating Negative Self Talk from our lives How much of an impact could we make in our own lives and the lives of the people we touch on a daily basis We have tremendous influence in the home corporate world the church and society as a whole But some how we have begun to lose sight of power and influence that we possess God gave us the ability not only to birth life but to speak life to every circumstance and situation that we face It s time for us as women of God to embrace our purpose and power Its time to stop bashing others and talking bad about ourselves We have to take our words and communication more seriously Just as Eve was a gift to Adam we are a gift to the body of Christ Its time for us to unleash the power of God s word in our lives
