First Monologue Book Kristen Dabrowski,2006 This groundbreaking new series is for truly young actors monologues scenes and technique book for the elementary school set Each book builds on the one before it so skills grow as students grow Often young children are given work written for older actors that is difficult for them to understand and retain This material is comprehensible relatable and fun For all the young characters and performers there is finally a book for you And within this series an exciting collection that breaks down barriers Square pegs don t fit into round holes It s that simple Specifically for young actors of Hispanic descent M Ramirez has written a group of books for second third fourth generation immigrant kids who don't often feel included in a lot of the literature they're surrounded with. References to abuelos, abuelas, and other cultural specifics help make these performance pieces a little more accessible to kids who might or might not be speaking English as a second language, all with a specific flavor that will help young actors find their voices and stretch themselves performing pieces that speak not only about them but directly to them. Because of the Latino flavor incorporated into this material, these kids can focus on what they are meant to focus on performing without any cultural barriers.

KIDS These books tell you about how to act and give you some excellent characters to play. There are also many, many games and activities. P.S. They may also make you the smartest kid you know.

TEACHERS This series provides ample material for classroom use. In addition, the Teacher's Guide will give tips and ideas to use in classrooms.

PARENTS If you've got a natural performer in the house, this book provides some simple pieces for auditioning, horsing around, or performing in the living room. These books are both fun and educational.

AGENTS/MANAGERS These monologues are immediate and active with different emotions and levels within each monologue. Great for auditions.

Everyday life was never so nutty. Inside you'll find imaginative "what if" pieces for would-be princesses, cowboys, robots, and superheroes, as well as real-life issues like unfair bedtimes, making new friends, and the horrible taste of broccoli. At this stage in life, there are lots of firsts too, like going to a new school and losing your teeth, so there are plenty of topics for children to connect with.

Short, accessible selections on common topics such as games, families, food, friends, school, and wishes. The true-to-life experiences and emotions are delivered in a child's voice and run the gamut from funny to serious. The book has several classroom applications, including public speaking, memorization, journal writing, and storytelling. While there are other monologue titles for elementary children, the selections in My First Monologue Book are much shorter and easier to memorize or analyze.

SHARING Some people think I don't like sharing but that isn't true at all I love sharing I mean what's not to love about being able to go up to someone and say Hey can I have some of that candy And then they give you some Or Can I ride your bike for a while And then you get to ride their bike Sharing is awesome Sometimes you have to be careful though Like if someone comes up to me and says Can I have one of your cookies Well if I gave them a cookie then I might not have any cookies left to share with other people and that would be like the opposite of sharing So I have to say no Because sharing is really important

SCOUT Before we moved here we had this big dog named Scout Mom always said he was a total mutt but I think he was also part collie And maybe part golden retriever But he was definitely at least half mutt Scout was supposed to be the whole family's dog but he was really mine I mean after school it was me he would be waiting for And when anyone threw his ball I'm the one he always brought it back to And at night it was always my bed he slept in But before we moved here my Mom found out we weren't allowed to have any pets so we had to give him away to my cousins I don't really talk about it but sometimes I dream about Scout He's got his ball in his mouth and he's looking for me And I'm saying Here Scout I'm right here But he doesn't hear me and he can't see me and I'm saying I'm right here Scout I'm right here And then I don't know I guess I wake up I don't know if Scout dreams about me

UNIVERSE I saw on the Discovery Channel where a long time ago before the beginning of time the entire universe was as small as the head of a pin And everything was inside it Stars planets houses people cars other pins Everything in the universe And then one day this head of a pin just exploded and everything came out at like a million degrees hot and a million miles an hour And all the stars and planets and people and cars just kept getting bigger and bigger until they filled up all of space and all of time just burning and melting and spinning And as soon as I heard that I knew that I was just like that pin and that one day I'm gonna explode too And when I do fire and stars and whole worlds will come out of me and they'll be a million degrees hot and they'll travel so far and so fast that I'll never have to come back here again Not ever Not ever
