accuse Croft of having any sense he muttered as he walked back to his horses What is your problem with Mr Croft Clearly you don't like him What has he done to you He kept his eyes on the horse's harness heaving a sigh Nothing He has always paid me what I earned He hasn't mistreated me I have no reason not to like him And yet you don't She tilted her head waiting for an answer Get back under your covers before you let out all the heat What heat she grumbled pulling the covers up to her chin You let the coal burn out ages ago
