anthropological approach to the fundamental philosophical question of what makes life worth living Gordon Mathews considers this perennial issue by examining nine pairs of similarly situated individuals in the United States and Japan In the course of exploring how people from these two cultures find meaning in their daily lives he illuminates a vast and intriguing range of ideas about work and love religion creativity and self realization Mathews explores these topics by means of the Japanese term ikigai that which most makes one's life seem worth living American English has no equivalent but ikigai applies not only to Japanese lives but to American lives as well Ikigai is what day after day and year after year each of us most essentially lives for Through the life stories of those he interviews Mathews analyzes the ways Japanese and American lives have been affected by social roles and cultural vocabularies As we approach the end of the century the author's investigation into how the inhabitants of the world's two largest economic superpowers make sense of their lives brings a vital new understanding to our skeptical age Pure Emotion Susan H. Lawrence, 2011-05-25 Do not be shaped by this world instead be changed within by a new way of thinking Then you will be able to decide what God wants for you you will know what is good and pleasing to him and what is perfect Romans 12:2 Emotions saturate Scripture God is an emotional God not in the same way we talk about an emotional person But God is certainly aware of the runaway emotions we're referring to when we put a negative spin on emotions We can't escape God's presence That means he sees and hears alongside us including our often messy emotions And if we let him God will replace those untruthful messages we've learned about emotions along the journey of life with the truthful messages reflecting his character will and commands God didn't mess up his design of you He created you in his image He has a plan for your life He even knew what mistakes you'd make throughout your life and he still loves you and wants nothing more than to be in an ever deepening relationship with you He will pursue you whether you're not following him and need to make that decision or you're following him marginally or you're passionate about him He designed you for more and he will pursue you tapping you on the shoulder whispering in your ear and knocking on the door of your heart so that your daily life including your decisions attitudes and yes emotions is impacted in the purity of who he created you to be and the everyday messiness of living on Earth If your emotions aren't reflecting the character of God well you're probably distorting something and need to get back on track That's what this journey is about growing closer to God getting to know him better and committing to reflecting him more and more on a daily basis Pure Emotion will dig into reflect upon and live out God's Word Chapters include Week One The Emotional Experience Week Two What's a Pure Emotion Week Three Fear Week Four Jealousy Week Five Anger Week Six Anxiety and Peace Week Seven Frustration Week Eight Guilt and Shame Week Nine Joy Week Ten Living Emotionally Pure

Lewis,2020-09-20 Understanding Knowledge Insight It is the goal of most people and humanity in general to understand and to gain knowledge To understand our natural world To understand space To understand those things so tiny we can never see them We want to understand what other people are saying insight into what they are feeling and what makes them tick For most people it is natural to want to understand more about a wide variety of topics and disciplines Perhaps the most important understanding of them all is the knowledge of self Adult babies have traditionally not fared well in the area of understanding of ourselves The few professional attempts to explain ABDL behaviour and thinking have been less than helpful and often insulting and deeply offensive Being described as a paraphilia alongside and adjacent to paedophilia and other serious disorders has been the nightmare that has haunted the community for a generation Slowly however the light has been dawning on the extraordinary world of the adult baby The first step was the recognition that being an adult baby is no mere affectation fetish or odd choice of behaviour It was the understanding that the baby self is a genuine and subjectively real identity Not a thing not a concept or a feeling but an identity A few professionals have belatedly drifted onto the scene and made a few inroads but they have been well behind the small group of hard working ABDLs themselves who have sought to build a body of understanding on who we are Knowing who we are is the key to success happiness and the ability to move forward The works of B Terrance Grey Rosalie and Michael Bent led the way to building an intellectual basis of understanding of who Adult babies are Then came Dylan Lewis whose canon of work in this area has no peer This new book Living Happily as an Adult Baby makes a promise in its title that is almost obscene in its arrogance Adult Babies have often struggled with the power of their baby identity and happiness especially long term happiness has often eluded them This work is commended to all adult babies their family and friends as it seeks to further humanity's understanding of this most complex identity structure The Adult Baby Heroic Egoism Darin Penzera, 2012-08-17 Heroic Egoism explains the great moral art the sculpting of moral character showing you how to sculpt your soul into the form of greatness The purpose of this book is to provide an ethical training system for creating ideal human beings This book will provide you with a step by step guide on how to practice a rational code of morality in your everyday life When you exercise in the steps of moral training outlined in these pages consistently and sincerely they will produce in you true strength of character Living Well in a World Worth Living in for All Kristin Elaine Reimer, Mervi Kaukko, Sally Windsor, Stephen Kemmis, Kathleen Mahon, 2024-06-12 This open access book is the second of a two volume series that explores how people are living well and creating a World Worth Living in for All It engages in deep listening of voices from across the world and considers the role of education in creating a more just and sustainable world for the future The book asks what can be learnt to create change in policy and practice in order to enact praxis It showcases chapters from international authors who discuss current or new projects to address the overarching questions explored in the book It also provides an overview of perspectives that connect both volumes and the individual projects presented together through the lens of practice architectures
