Universal Human Rights in a World of Difference

Brooke A. Ackerly,2008-06-26 From the diverse work and often competing insights of women s human rights activists Brooke Ackerly has written a feminist and a universal theory of human rights that bridges the relativists concerns about universalizing from particulars and the activists commitment to justice Unlike universal theories that rely on shared commitments to divine authority or to an enlightened way of reasoning Ackerly s theory relies on rigorous methodological attention to difference and disagreement She sets out human rights as at once a research ethic a tool for criticism of injustice and a call to recognize our obligations to promote justice through our actions This book will be of great interest to political theorists feminist and gender studies scholars and researchers of social movements

Intercultural Transfers and the Making of the Modern World, 1800-2000

Thomas Adam,2011-11-29 For far too long the history of the modern era has been written as a history of isolated nation states This book which presents both interpretation and primary source documents challenges a nation centred account exploring the interconnected and interrelated nature of societies in the nineteenth and twentieth century Responding to the burgeoning interest and number of courses in global and world history Intercultural Transfers and the Making of the Modern World introduces both the methods and materials of transnational history Case studies highlight transnational connections through the examples of cooperatives housing reform education eugenics and non violent resistance By embracing the interconnected nature of human history across continents and oceans and by employing the concept of intercultural transfer Adam explores the roots and global distribution of major transformations and their integration into local regional and national contexts This is an invaluable resource for the study of global world and transnational history Electronic Commerce Steve Elliot, 2002-03-15 Notwithstanding the NASDAQ upheavals in 2000 industry is continuing to embrace the concepts of Electronic Commerce However a major barrier to more widespread implementation of Electronic Commerce is uncertainty within organizations as how best to proceed Based on research in six economies the UK USA Denmark Greece Hong Kong China and Australia this much needed guide to the implementation of business to consumer electronic commerce addresses the documented uncertainties of business and consumers with Internet retailing by presenting the experiences of leading examples of Business to Consumer Electronic Commerce in each of six economies The countries represent a broad range of environments to identify issues that may be specific to a particular market The firms have been selected as significant examples of Internet retailing in industry sectors recognized as leaders in the use of the Internet including travel books music CDs technology sales gifts groceries and general merchandise World Englishes Ee Ling Low, Anne Pakir, 2017-10-31 In this book leading scholars in the field of World Englishes WE offer fresh perspectives in re thinking issues on the use of English as a global language in an interconnected world Established as a legitimate field of study WE offers a conceptual framework which has influenced scholarship in many related disciplines contact linguistics postcolonial Englishes English as a lingua franca English as an international language and applied linguistics This seminal volume will have an excellent balance between theoretical and empirical works focusing on scholarship that has arisen in relation to the Kachruvian Three Concentric Circles model This book covers topics such as state of the art review of WE WE and contact linguistics post colonial Englishes English as a Lingua Franca English as an International Language WE and applied linguistics language measurement and testing in WE language policy and management language education and dynamic ecologies language typology WE as a new canon WE and corpus linguistics WE and multimodalities and makes predictions about the future of WE It contains a comprehensive and up to date bibliography of major works published in the field Rise of the International Richard Devetak, Tim Dunne, Timothy Dunne, 2024 International Relations and History were once academic fields sharing a common concern with the affairs of empires states and nations Over the course of the twentieth century however they drifted apart International Relations largely retained the focus on the affairs and relations of these principal international actors but took a methodological turn leading to higher levels of theoretical abstraction History on the other hand retained the methods that define the discipline but shifted the focus veering away from matters of state to the vast array of actors events activities and issues that colour everyday life In recent years the drift has been arrested by scholars in each discipline who have turned towards the other discipline in their research International Relations has undergone a historiographical turn while History has taken an international turn Rise of the International brings together scholars of International Relations and History to capture the emergence and development of the thought the relations and the systems that have come to be called international in western discourse The evidence offered by contributors to the volume suggests there has been no single stable unchanging concept or object of theoretical reflection or historical investigation that can be called the international but a variety of historically contingent conceptualizations across different contexts
