Making Arrows Collected Poems 1970 2015:

Making the Arrows James Richard McLeod, 2015 From Now On Clarence Major, 2015-04-01 Clarence Major is a consummate artist whose work in poetry fiction and painting has been widely recognized He has been part of twenty eight group exhibitions has had fifteen one man shows and has published fourteen collections of poetry and nine works of fiction Major s works and this collection in particular are distinguished by his poetic sociability and his unblinking but generous and affectionate portraiture In From Now On a retrospective of poems from the 1950s to the present including selections from each of Major s previous books of poetry as well as a generous selection of new poems Major creates a vivid gallery of nimbly drawn characters Here he establishes a voice that is singular and musical one that draws witty moving and empathetic portraits of African American urban and country dwellers Ultimately this collection maintains Major s intimate conversational poetry while simultaneously becoming more eclectic multicultural and cosmopolitan Major s poetry is affable but it suggests an insistence that we can connect with history and social change through the dynamic lives of the people we encounter daily

Dublin Chris Morash, 2023-03-09 Dublin A Writer s City takes the reader area by area through one of the world s great literary cities Chicago Renaissance Liesl Olson, 2017-01-01 A fascinating history of Chicago s innovative and invaluable contributions to American literature and art from the late nineteenth to the mid twentieth century This remarkable cultural history celebrates the great Midwestern city of Chicago for its centrality to the modernist movement Author Liesl Olson traces Chicago s cultural development from the 1893 World s Fair through mid century illuminating how Chicago writers revolutionized literary forms during the first half of the twentieth century a period of sweeping aesthetic transformations all over the world From Harriet Monroe Carl Sandburg and Ernest Hemingway to Richard Wright and Gwendolyn Brooks Olson s enthralling study bridges the gap between two distinct and equally vital Chicago based artistic renaissance moments the primarily white renaissance of the early teens and the creative ferment of Bronzeville Stories of the famous and iconoclastic are interwoven with accounts of lesser known yet influential figures in Chicago many of whom were women Olson argues for the importance of Chicago s editors bookstore owners tastemakers and ordinary citizens who helped nurture Chicago s unique culture of artistic experimentation Cover art by Lincoln Schatz Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume Two Philip A. Greasley, 2016-08-08 The Midwest has produced a robust literary heritage Its authors have won half of the nation s Nobel Prizes for Literature plus a significant number of Pulitzer Prizes This volume explores the rich racial ethnic and cultural diversity of the region It also contains entries on 35 pivotal Midwestern literary works literary genres literary cultural historical and social movements state and city literatures literary journals and magazines as well as entries on science fiction film comic strips graphic novels and environmental writing Prepared by a team of scholars this second volume of the Dictionary of Midwestern Literature is a comprehensive resource that demonstrates the Midwest s continuing cultural vitality and the stature and distinctiveness of its literature The Philosophy of Literary Translation Clive

Scott,2023-08-10 While reading transforms texts through memories associations and re imaginings translation allows us to act out our reading experience inscribe it in a new text and engage in a dialogic and dynamic relationship with the original In this highly original new study Clive Scott reveals the existential and ecological values that literary translation can embody in its perceptual transformation of texts The transfer of a text from one language into another is merely the platform from which translation launches its larger ambitions including the existential expansion and re situation of text towards new expressive futures and ways of inhabiting the world Recasting language as a living organism and as part of humanity s ongoing duration this study uncovers its tireless capacity to cross perceptual boundaries to multiply relations between the human and the non human and to engage with forms of language which evoke unfamiliar modes of psycho perception and eco modelling
