I saw a padlock on the trunk, so how am I supposed to open it. Then a idea came to me. I could brake the padlock with a rock. I grabbed a big rock and slammed it against the padlock. I didn't brake. This time with all my strength I slammed the rock against the padlock and BOOM! The padlock broke in half. Before opening the trunk, I wondered what was inside. I closed my eyes and opened the heavy trunk.

As I opened my eyes I did not believe what I saw. I saw a wooden baseball bat, a Baltimore Orioles hat, and a shortstop's glove. I thought it may be a major league baseball player's equipment. Maybe it was a retired player's equipment. I thought of retired baseball players on the Orioles and thought it was the great Cal Ripken Jr. I wonder if it is Cal Ripken Jr.

I went to do some research on the objects I found in the trunk. I looked to see what Cal Ripken Jr.'s bat but but but it looked exactly the same. Then, I checked what his glove

The Global Achievement Gap Tony Wagner, 2014-03-11 Despite the best efforts of educators our nation s schools are dangerously obsolete Instead of teaching students to be critical thinkers and problem solvers we are asking them to memorize facts for multiple choice tests This problem isn t limited to low income school districts even our top schools aren t teaching or testing the skills that matter most in the global knowledge economy Our teens leave school equipped to work only in the kinds of jobs that are fast disappearing from the American economy Meanwhile young adults in India and China are competing with our students for the most sought after careers around the world Education expert Tony Wagner has conducted scores of interviews with business leaders and observed hundreds of classes in some of the nation s most highly regarded public schools He discovered a profound disconnect between what potential employers are looking for in young people today critical thinking skills creativity and effective communication and what our schools are providing passive learning environments and uninspired lesson plans that focus on test preparation and reward memorization He explains how every American can work to overhaul our education system and he shows us examples of dramatically different schools that teach all students new skills In addition through interviews with college graduates and people who work with them Wagner discovers how teachers parents and employers can motivate the generation to excellence An education manifesto for the twenty first century The Global Achievement Gap is provocative and inspiring It is essential reading for parents educators business leaders policy makers and anyone interested in seeing our young people succeed as employees and citizens For additional information about the author and the book please go to a href <http://www.schoolchange.org> MCAS English Language Arts, Grade 7 Editors of REA, Dana Passananti, 2013-01-01 REA s Massachusetts Grade 7 MCAS English Language Arts Test Prep Fully aligned with the Massachusetts Curriculum Framework Standards Are you prepared to excel on this state high stakes assessment exam Take the diagnostic Pretest and find out what you know and what you should know Use REA s advice and tips to ready yourself for proper study and practice Sharpen your knowledge and skills The book s full subject review refreshes knowledge and covers all topics on the official exam including Composition and Language and Literature Smart and friendly lessons reinforce necessary skills Key tutorials enhance specific abilities needed on the test Targeted drills increase comprehension and help organize study Color icons and graphics highlight important concepts and tasks Practice for real Create the closest experience to test day conditions with a full length practice Posttest Chart your progress with detailed explanations of each answer Boost confidence with test taking strategies and focused drills Ideal for Classroom Family or Solo Test Preparation REA has helped generations of students study smart and excel on the important tests REA s study guides for state required exams are teacher recommended and written by experts who have mastered the test Kaplan Ultimate MCAS Exit Exams Cynthia Johnson, Kaplan, Drew Johnson, 2000-09 This year s tenth grade students in Massachusetts are the first class required to pass the Massachusetts Comprehensive Assessment System exam before graduating This guide helps students take the test with confidence providing strategies for answering the variety of questions and exercises for acing each of the test s subject areas Drawings charts and diagrams throughout Fundamentals and Flaws of Standards-Based Testing Charlie DePascale, 2025-05-30 When put to the test will standards based reporting remain as fundamentally flawed as once feared or can next generation approaches refine the system for the better Fundamentals and Flaws of Standards Based Testing offers an inside perspective on the technical challenges encountered during each phase of the assessment cycle Careers in state testing are spent balancing technical logistical financial political psychological sociocultural emotional and measurement considerations while keeping an eye on the educational goals of the state assessment program This insightful and comprehensive book draws on measurement foundations and real life experiences in state testing to discuss critical and
