young men who walk in the same shoes and have experienced the same journey Too often do young African American men learn from their own experiences when they should have been mentored educated and prepared for life struggles as an African American in this racist and sometimes violent country However Changa has learned the hard way and finds himself in circumstances that aren't easy to overcome He is now serving a life sentence for a fatal shooting in which his own life was in serious danger He struggles with the reality that at nineteen years old he may never see freedom again He goes through a deep depression and has a bad adjustment to his new reality In solitary confinement he comes into contact with older politically socially and culturally conscious prisoners who were able to enlighten him and articulate his plight as an individual as well as their collective struggle as a people He then went on a search to learn more about his history culture and political reality His story also involves his family and their relationships and struggles during his incarceration He goes on to experience control units and to suffer from the psychological effects of them Through all these trials and tribulations he gives educated commentary and reflections of his life spirituality family race and culture He has learned that freedom is more than having liberty to move about in the greater society Freedom is a state of mind and the ability to think independently The
