The Service-Dominant Logic of Marketing Robert F. Lusch,Stephen L. Vargo,2014-12-18 Expanding on the editors award winning article Evolving to a New Dominant Logic for Marketing this book presents a challenging new paradigm for the marketing discipline This new paradigm is service oriented customer oriented relationship focused and knowledge based and places marketing once viewed as a support function central to overall business strategy Service dominant logic defines service as the application of competencies for the benefit of another entity and sees mutual service provision rather than the exchange of goods as the proper subject of marketing It moves the orientation of marketing from a market to philosophy where customers are promoted to targeted and captured to a market with philosophy where the customer and supply chain partners are collaborators in the entire marketing process The editors elaborate on this model through an historical analysis clarification and extension of service dominant logic and distinguished marketing thinkers then provide further insight and commentary The result is a more comprehensive and inclusive marketing theory that will challenge both current thinking and marketing practice

The Gendered Motorcycle Esperanza Miyake,2018-06-14 What happens to gender at 120mph Are Harley Davidsons more masculine than Yamahas The Gendered Motorcycle answers such questions through a critical examination of motorcycles in film advertising and television Whilst bikers and biker cultures have been explored previously the motorcycle itself has remained largely under theorised especially in relation to gender Esperanza Miyake reveals how representations of motorcycles can produce different gendered bodies identities spaces and practices This interdisciplinary book offers new and critical ways to think about gender and motorcycles and will interest scholars and students of gender technology and visual cultures as well as motorcycle industry practitioners and motorcycle enthusiasts
