I Hate the Lake District Charlie Gere, 2019-10-08 An alternative view of the North West of England that delves into its stranger past I Hate the Lake District offers a different vision of the rural environment from those found in much contemporary nature writing Based on the author s trips around North West England the book engages with nuclear power and nuclear war slavery

imperialism ghosts love God cockroaches and the sheer violence and contingency of nature itself of which the human presence is merely a part Each chapter starts with an account of a visit to a place in this remote part of England the deep north but digresses and wanders through multifarious themes and subjects Among the sites Gere visits are the defunct nuclear power station at Sellafield home of all British nuclear waste Lake Coniston where Donald Campbell died trying to break the water speed record Hadrian s Wall furthestmost reach of the Roman Empire the mysterious and deathly Morecambe Bay sites of slavery in the North West places where UFOs have been sighted avant garde artists created work and Islamic terrorists trained shantytowns where the navvies who built the railways lived with their families and even the remains of Blobbyland in Morecambe In I Hate the Lake District Gere challenges the bourgeois pastoralism of popular nature writing and reveals the landscape of North West England as profoundly unnatural and strange Flying Magazine ,1947-03
