No one knows the writer's Hollywood more intimately than William Goldman. Two time Academy Award winning screenwriter and the bestselling author of The Princess Bride, Marathon Man, Tinsel Boys and Girls Together and other novels Goldman now takes you behind the scenes for Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid, All the President's Men and other films into the plush offices of Hollywood producers into the working lives of acting greats such as Redford, Olivier, Newman and Hoffman and into his own professional experiences and creative thought processes in the crafting of screenplays. off Course Ethel McMilin, 2011-02-17 Eric heard a loud crash and knew that the airplane he was on had just crashed on an island. When he looked around he realized that the majority of the passengers had died from the severe impact. Once he left the plane he discovered there were seven survivors. He also discovered that the front of the plane was smashed in. Sending a message wasn't going to work. How could they reach someone to let them know where they landed? How would they survive if they couldn't contact anyone? When would they be rescued?

Shiny Objects Dianne Benedict, 1982 A successful professional painter and art instructor for years Benedict was dissatisfied that she could paint perfect flowers and expensive portraits of wealthy clients but could not capture the light on the garden at dusk or the tender hands and faces of her own children. Seven years ago she walked into a poetry workshop and found the window she needed for her imagination. She never painted another painting and has never stopped writing. She got her BA in English and her MFA in writing at Goddard College, taught workshops, won scholarships and received grants and awards for her fiction. Her stories have appeared in INTRO and Fiction International and the title story in this award-winning collection was published as an Atlantic Monthly First.

The Grey Mind Mridul, 2021-01-30 Sexual urge is the basic instinct of our lives and if one is a normal human being they can't deny that he/she never desires anyone in his or her lifetime. Even saints don't fully overcome their sexual urges by adopting different life patterns. The fascinating thing is that we can hide our sexual urges from others but not from us. Human desire is one of the most complicated issues of the brain and if it is sexual sometimes it becomes unprecedented in our life. From the upper level to the lower level of the society, highly educated to uneducated and straight to LGBTQ orientation people, it matters the same. But when sexual desire turns into love it does not bother physical satisfaction but instead becomes mental. Love is the most precious and spontaneous emotional expression of the brain where country, society, race, language, age and sexual orientation do not matter. Love can't generate its spontaneous. But sexual desires initiated by different influencers like alcohol, music, ambience, company etc. can be minimised by impartial self-analysis.

A White Wind Blew James Markert, 2014-02-04 Compelling and thought-provoking. John Burnham Schwartz, author of Reservation Road. When the body fails you've got two choices: Send the doctor in or send a prayer up. But when no miracle arrives how do you pull out a measure of hope? Dr. Wolfgang Pike would love nothing more than to finish the requiem he's composing for his late wife but the ending seems as hopeless as the patients dying a hundred yards away at the Waverly Hills Tuberculosis sanatorium. If he can't ease his own pain with music he tries to ease theirs but his boss thinks music is a waste and in 1920s Louisville the specter of racial tensions looms over everything. When a retired concert pianist arrives Wolfgang is thrust into an orchestra of the most extraordinary kind that emerges to change everything.
