Hauling Trash My Life As A Trash Hauler:

Hauling Trash Sam McGowan, 2012-10-03 HAULING TRASH is Sam McGowan's account of his experiences as a US Air Force aircrew member in the Vietnam Era. It starts with an account of his boyhood on a West Tennessee cotton farm then moves into his military experiences beginning in July 1963. Over the next twelve years he not only saw a good part of the world he saw combat in Southeast Asia as a C 130 crewmember. During his first overseas tour at Naha Okinawa he flew dangerous forward air controller flare missions over North Vietnam and the Ho Chi Minh Trail in Laos. After an eighteen month sojourn as a C 141 crewmember in Military Airlift Command he returned to combat operations in Southeast Asia this time with a unit based at Clark Air Base in the Philippines. In addition to combat airlift missions into forward airfields in South Vietnam he flew COMMANDO VAULT bombing missions dropping massive ten and fifteen thousand bombs from C 130s. In 1970 he returned to the US to the first operational squadron flying the gigantic C 5 Galaxy and was involved with the huge airplane during the years as it experienced growing pains. In October 1973 he was a crewmember on one of the first C 5As to land at Lod Airport at Tel Aviv during the Yom Kippur War. In addition to his experiences as an Air Force crewmember both in the air and on the ground he also relates his experiences as he progresses from civilian private pilot to a commercial pilot with instrument rating and flight instructor certificate and how he learned aerobatics on his own. This is a book for anyone who is interested in military aviation particularly during the Vietnam War but it also includes much about the author's experiences flying light airplanes and would appeal to aviation enthusiasts as well as those with an interest in the military.

The Long Road Home... Richard McKenzie Neal, 2009-11-18 By this point in our lives my target readers weve all heard the old adage You cant go home But what does it mean As life winds down and the drone of existence begins to wane I m feeling an intangible desire or need to reach back into my past and reconnect with a by gone time and people living and or dead It feels like an elusive melody that seems distantly familiar yet strange and unidentifiable If all the above sounds like a premonition of the inevitable I agree and accept that my time is ticking away But its not about dying its about going home Im not afraid of dying but I do struggle with the reality that I will no longer physically exist I have to wonder if the term going home isn't a misnomer and maybe we were trying to return to Neverland Fridays With Landon When we were very young we searched for that elusive utopian community and studies have shown that in our declining years we slowly revert to our childhood Another line of thought is that it's all just a mirage We know and accept that a man can be dying of thirst in the middle of the driest desert and his mind will anesthetize him by creating the illusion of an oasis If we can acknowledge that phenomenon the mind's coping mechanism then it shouldn't be much of a stretch to reason that the elderly possess those same innate coping capabilities to ease their journey home Of course their mirage would be about going home not to a place but to another time What is the driver for this apparently universal pilgrimage I have to wonder even compare it to an addict's motivation The Path to Addiction one more trip down that path of pleasant memories even as the host is being sacrificed
