The Text and Its Context Nigel Harris, Joanne Sayner, 2008 This Festschrift for Ronald Speirs Professor of German at the University of Birmingham contains twenty four original essays by scholars from Great Britain Germany Austria and Norway Between them they encompass the entire modern period from the later eighteenth century onwards and focus on a wide range of German speaking environments Several essays throw new light on authors to whom Professor Speirs himself has devoted particular attention such as Brecht Thomas Mann Nietzsche and Fontane whilst others discuss writers such as Lenz Büchner Büchler C F Meyer Keyserling Jahn and Huch Above all however the contributions address the complexities of writing in ideologically diverse contexts including the Third Reich and the former German Democratic Republic This interplay between text and context is the cornerstone which links all the essays as it has consistently informed Ronald Speirs's own work which combines a scrupulous attention to textual detail with an acute awareness of the socio political milieu and philosophical influences that shape creative literature

Understanding Gerhart Hauptmann Warren R. Maurer, 1992 Bahnwärter Thiel and Fasching Gerhart Hauptmann, 1968

Twentieth-century Reworkings of German Literature Gundula Sharman, 2002 A study of six modern reworkings of classic works of German literature A literary reworking is a fictional work based on an earlier usually canonical literary work Gundula M Sharman considers six twentieth century examples of this phenomenon in German literature including Peter Schneider's Lenz as a reworking of Georg Büchner's novella of the same title Ulrich Plenzdorf's Die neuen Leiden des jungen Werther as a reworking of Goethe's Werther Wolfgang Koeppen's Der Tod in Rom based on Thomas Mann's Der Tod in Venedig and three other pairs of reworkings original works from the genres of drama the novella and the novel The indebtedness of such reworkings to the original works is openly acknowledged often in the title and this invites the reader to draw comparisons and to note contrasts between reworking and original The twentieth century author's interpretation and the reader's reception of the older work merge to form a subtext of the reworking giving rise to a third narrative in the reader's imagination The better the reader knows the literary model the more multi-faceted the reworking appears The purpose of each reworking is unique One may demonstrate how much the world has changed since the publication of the original while another argues that society has not changed at all One may be conceived as an anti-work to the original while another serves to endorse its message Common to all reworkings however is a gain in historical depth and in each case themes and issues arise from the relationship of reworking to original that are not immediately apparent when the reworking is considered on its own Gundula M Sharman teaches in the German Department at the University of Aberdeen Scotland

Bahnwarter Thiel Gerhart Hauptmann, 2017-03-30 e Was willst du werden fragte ihn der Vater und diese Frage war stereotyp wie die Antwort des Jungen ein Bahnmeister Es war keine Scherzfrage denn die Träume des Writers verstiegen sich in der Tat in solche Höhen und er hegte allen Ernstes den Wunsch und die Hoffnung da aus Tobias mit Gottes Hilfe etwas Außergewöhnliches werden sollte Sobald die Antwort ein Bahnmeister von den blutlosen Lippen des Kleinen kam der natürlich nicht wusste was sie bedeuten sollte begann Thiels Gesicht sich aufzuhellen bis es förmlich strahlte von innerer Glückseligkeit Geh Tobias geh spielen sagte er kurz darauf indem er eine Pfeife Tabak mit einem im Herdfeuer entzündeten Span in Brand steckte und der Kleine drückte sich alsbald in scheuer Freude zur Türe hinaus Thiel entkleidete sich ging zu Bett und entschlief nachdem er geraume Zeit gedankenvoll die niedrige und rissig

Alfred and Lucie Dreyfus in the Phantasmagoria Norman Simms, 2014-06-02 Alfred Dreyfus saw himself caught in a phantasmagoria a great complex enigma that needed to be solved but all the clues seemed to be an hallucination a will o' the wisp or what George Sand called orblutes This book examines how Dreyfus and his wife found a powerful new kind of love through Jewish themes at the same time as they were forced to conceal their true identities To see how Jewish Dreyfus was the book explores his background in Alsatian culture in the cosmopolitan Judaism of Paris and in the customs of Mediterranean Jewry A close reading of the Court Martial in Rennes shows Dreyfus as more than the zinc puppet he was called the scenario emerging as a variation of horror fantasies popular in the fin de siècle The book asks two questions why did Dreyfus prefer Meissonier's paintings to the Impressionists and Post Impressionists we admire so much and why although he appreciated Zola's efforts on his behalf did he not refer to his novels

Voices in Times of Change David Rock, 2000-09-01 Taking an interdisciplinary approach this volume offers an overview of the role of writers intellectuals citizens and the churches both before but particularly after 1989 in the GDR and the new Germany Friedrich Schorlemmer provides the focal point giving the book its coherence Issues related to his role in the GDR church and citizens movement are examined as well as his support for GDR writers both before and after unification and his own writings on east and west German literature After general surveys on intellectuals civil rights groups opposition movements and churches in the transformation of east Germany the volume focuses on Friedrich Schorlemmer himself a chapter on the significance of the role that he played is followed by interviews with him and an original essay by him giving his personal view of the role of intellectuals citizens and writers in east Germany The volume is rounded off by a chapter on the reactions of lesser known writers and finally on the responses of prominent GDR writers to unification and on the changing role of writers in society Combining literary and cultural with social and political analysis this volume provides a lively and multifaceted picture of the new Germany

Realism and Reality Walter Silz, 2020-05-01 In this 1954 study of poetic realism and the Novelle form Silz examines nine Novellen by Brentano Arnim Droste H lshoff Stifter Grillspärzer Keller Meyer Storm and Hauptmann Through his textual interpretation of each of these works Silz draws the threads of the transition from Romanticism to Naturalism as well as the development of the Novelle form

Mental Processes and Narrative Possibilities in the German Novelle, 1890-1940 David Turner, 2005 Although it concentrates on a particular historical period and although it examines a variety of individual works many of them acknowledged Novellen this study is neither an historical survey nor a collection of interpretations Its distinctive approach is taxonomical and comparative Taking as its starting point the surge of interest in the human mind as the nineteenth century drew to a close it examines the kinds of shorter narrative that were generated by that interest On the other hand therefore it investigates how by focusing on particular aspects of the mind writers were led to adopt certain narrative patterns or structures and on the other hand building on the work of Dorrit Cohn but extending her range considerably it explores and evaluates the different modes of presentation which writers exploited as they sought to give life to the inner workings of their characters According to some psychology and the Novelle are incompatible Although the investigation concludes that there is no inherent incompatibility between psychological interest and the aims of the Novelle it also demonstrates that psychological interest in shorter narratives does not always lead to Novellen it explores other narrative structures that may arise when particular models of the mind form their basis
