How NOT to Get Published

Claire Gillman, 2013-09-27 There are many brilliant books out there which have not been published because their author has not been able to successfully navigate the minefield that is finding a publisher In many cases authors make basic mistakes in their submissions which ensure that they do not even get read by the correct person Even if they do reach someone with decision making power they often fail to clearly explain the proposition of their book or the target market Claire Gilman is the perfect person to help you find a publisher for your manuscript She has done it successfully having had twenty of her own books published She has spoken to many commissioning editors and agents about what they look for and look to avoid in a submission And she has worked as a literary consultant helping all sorts of authors to improve their proposals Now she combines all this wisdom into one book explaining clearly 50 common mistakes which authors make and how you can avoid them and ensure that your work receives the attention and the publisher that it deserves

Education 2.0

Leonard J. Waks, 2015-11-17 Thirty years of spirited school reforms have failed to improve our schools and instead have left our public school systems in disarray Meanwhile employment prospects for high school and college graduates are fading and the public is losing faith in its schools The education paradigm inherited from the Industrial Era is in crisis In the last decade however the Internet and new Web 2 0 technologies have placed the entirety of human knowledge in the hands of everyone What will our educational institutions make of this unprecedented flood of Web based learning resources How can schools be transformed to accommodate the new possibilities for personal and social learning Leonard Waks gathers all the pieces of our current educational puzzle together in this groundbreaking book Drawing on new organizational models grounded in complexity theory Waks maps out an inspiring new paradigm for education in the Internet age and connects all the dots in constructing detailed models for new schools now transformed into open learning centers Finally Waks details action steps readers can take to speed this transformative process along in their own locations Holly and Ivy Fern
