Harry Seidler Lifework:

Harry Seidler LifeWork Vladimir Belogolovsky, 2014-04-01 A comprehensive survey of the work of a master of mid to late twentieth century modernist design Over the course of a career spanning more than five decades Australian architect Harry Seidler embarked upon a long series of dramatically innovative and sculptural houses with a rare sensitivity to site space and structure And while these soaring inspiring houses have been the source of Seidler s fame within architectural circles this book gives a complete view of this modern master s body of work for the first time Seidler is now widely acknowledged as a leading member of the postwar generation of modernists and one of the most influential architects of the twentieth century in the southern hemisphere With commissions not only in Australia but also in Austria France Israel Italy Mexico and Hong Kong since establishing his own practice in Sydney in 1948 his work has influenced the course of modernist design into the twenty first century

Le Corbusier in the Antipodes Antony Moulis, 2020-12-30 This book considers the architect Le Corbusier s encounters with Australia and New Zealand as a two way exchange showing the impact of his ideas and projects on architects of the region whilst also revealing counterinfluences on Le Corbusier in his post war career that were activated by his contacts Compiled from detailed archival research undertaken at the Fondation Le Corbusier Paris and nationally based archives Le Corbusier in the Antipodes brings together a set of episodes placing them in context with the history of modern art architecture and urbanism in 20th century Australia and New Zealand Key exchanges between Le Corbusier and others never before described are presented and analyzed including Le Corbusier s contact with Australian architect Harry Seidler at Chandigarh Le Corbusier s drawing of the plan of Adelaide in 1950 and his creative collaboration with Jorn Utzon on art for the Sydney Opera House This book also includes analysis of previously unseen Le Corbusier artworks which formed part of the Utzon family collection In reading these personal and contingent moments of encounter the book puts forward new ways of understanding the dissemination and mediation of Le Corbusier s ideas and their effects in post war Australia and New Zealand These antipodean contacts are set against the broader story of Le Corbusier s career questioning received interpretations of his design methods and current assumptions about the influence of his work in national contexts beyond Europe

Flack Studio David Flack, 2025-09-09 From highly expressive residential spaces to chic commercial environments this debut book presents interiors that reflect a harmonious fusion of bold style and bohemian spirit The arrival in 2021 of Australian global pop star Troye Sivan s richly layered Melbourne home introduced the world to Flack Studio a wildly creative multidisciplinary practice of designers and architects well established in Australia Launched in 2014 the studio is driven by an adventurous sensibility that embraces historical research and contemporary innovation Furniture lighting textiles fittings and vivid colour coalesce into a holistic yet idiosyncratic experience A deep sense of materiality a passion for contemporary art and an embrace of local community and makers are hallmarks of Flack s projects which include homes and restaurants throughout Australia Los Angeles Seoul and the Ace Hotel in Sydney In this beautifully crafted book the creative flair that defines Flack Studio's design philosophy is on display in a selection of projects curated by Flack himself Each project is a testament to the designer's talent for balancing contemporary aesthetics with a warm inviting atmosphere his bold use of color meticulous attention to detail and a seamless integration of modern and classical elements This is an exclusive first look into the studio's creative process showcasing how Flack's vision ultimately comes to life in emotive expressive interiors

Harry Seidler Vladimir Belogolovsky,2018-03-06 Hardcover in Slipcase Vladimir Belogolovsky's Harry Seidler The Exhibition leaves no stone unturned in documenting his ongoing four years in the making to date world tour exhibition Harry Seidler Painting Toward Architecture It examines the blurry boundaries between art and architecture and how these disciplines inspire one another by bringing to focus the work of Vienna born Australian modernist Harry Seidler and his creative collaborations with a dozen of world renowned architects and artists Curator of 20 Seidler exhibitions and author of Harry Seidler Lifework Rizzoli 2014 Belogolovsky provides detailed insights into the project from beginning to end pitching initial exhibition idea to the client developing its concept arranging the tour preparing the content designing individual exhibitions managing installations presenting the lecture initiating new collaborations and projects The book's focus on a single touring exhibition is unprecedented it explores what typical exhibition catalogues miss entirely spatial engagement with the content by the public In its attempt to present various aspects of a single exhibition the book raises fundamental curatorial issues beyond the project in question

Australia Harry Margalit,2019-11-15 This book tells the story of the architects and buildings that have defined Australia's architectural culture since the founding of the modern nation through Federation in 1901 That year marked the beginning of a search for better city forms and buildings to accommodate the changing realities of Australian life and to express an emerging distinctive and eventually confident Australian identity While Sydney and Melbourne were the settings for many of the major buildings all states and territories developed architectural traditions based on distinctive histories and climates Harry Margalit explores the flowering of these many architectural variants from the bid to create a model city in Canberra through the stylistic battles that opened a space for modernism to the idealism of postwar reconstruction and beyond to the new millennium Australia reveals a vibrant and influential culture of the built environment at its best when it matches civic idealism with the sensuality of a country of stunning light and landscapes

My Country David Marr,2024-11-12 David Marr is the rarest of breeds one of Australia's most unflinching forensic reporters of political controversy and one of its most subtle and eloquent biographers In Marr's hands those things we call reportage and commentary are elevated to artful and illuminating chronicles of our time My Country collects his powerful reflections on religion sex censorship and the law striking accounts of leaders moralists and scandalmongers elegant ruminations on the arts and the lives of artists And some memorable new pieces My country is the subject that interests me most and I have spent my career trying to untangle its mysteries David Marr

Designer Suburbs Judith O'Callaghan, Charles Pickett, 2012-11-01 In the 1950s 60s and 70s architects like Harry Seidler Robin Boyd Ken Woolley Michael Dysart and Graeme Gunn applied their talents to project homes bringing high end design to the suburbs Backed by Pettit Sevitt Merchant Builders and other project builders architects created small deceptively simple houses which transformed the look of suburbia Today the distance between the architectural profession and suburban housing has never been greater with Australia's super sized energy guzzling project homes the biggest in the world With photographs by Max Dupain David Moore Wolfgang Sievers and Eric Sierins alongside original plans Designer Suburbs explores the relationship between architects builders and affordable housing since 1900 and the lessons we can learn from twentieth century designer suburbs 150 Geoffrey London, Philip Goad, Conrad Hamann, 2017 Architect designed houses of the period 1950 65 proposed an innovative response to the social economic and climatic conditions of post war Australia At the same time they embraced the aesthetic technological and egalitarian aspirations of modern architecture An Unfinished Experiment in Living traces the emergence of this architectural phenomenon in Australia documenting the full range of its expression from the postwar optimism of the early 1950s through to the affluence of the 1960s It is a catalogue of the most significant houses of the period It includes comprehensive plans and period photographs of 150 houses from around Australia dating from a time when the great Australian dream was the single family house This book puts forward new research founded on the premise that the most significant houses of the 1950s and 60s represent an unfinished and undervalued experiment in modern living Issues such as the open plan the changing nature of the family the embrace of advances in technology the use of the courtyard and the orientation of the house to capture sun and privacy were valuable and critical lessons This is a compelling reminder of their continuing relevance Subject Architecture Design Australian History Sociology Austrians and Australia Marlene J.
