confluence of diverse mobilities and their impact on food cultures Ultimately the study shows that a sophisticated interpretation of transcultural food mobilities can help address alterity and build understanding in a world of increasing political and cultural polarization

Food in World History Jeffrey M. Pilcher, 2017-05-25 The second edition of this concise survey offers a comparative and comprehensive study of culinary cultures and food politics throughout the world from ancient times to the present day It examines the long history of globalization of foods as well as the political social and environmental implications of our changing relationship with food showing how hunger and taste have been driving forces in human history Including numerous case studies from diverse societies and periods Food in World History explores such questions as What social factors have historically influenced culinary globalization How did early modern plantations establish patterns for modern industrial food production Were eighteenth century food riots comparable to contemporary social movements around food Did Italian and Chinese migrant cooks sacrifice authenticity to gain social acceptance in the Americas Have genetically modified foods fulfilled the promises made by proponents This new edition includes expanded discussions of gender and the family indigeneity and the politics of food Expanded chapters on contemporary food systems and culinary pluralism examine debates over the concentration of corporate control over seeds and marketing authenticity and exoticism within the culinary tourism industry and the impact of social media on restaurants and home cooks

Food Mobilities Daniel E. Bender, Simone Cinotto, 2023-11-30 Bringing together multidisciplinary scholars from the growing discipline of food studies Food Mobilities examines food provisioning and the food cultures of the world historically and in contemporary times The collection offers a range of fascinating case studies including explorations of Italian food in colonial Ethiopia traditional Cornish pasties in Mexico migrant community gardeners in Toronto and beer all around the world In exploring the origins of the contemporary global food system and how we cook and eat today Food Mobilities uncovers the local and global circulation of food ingredients cooks commodities labour and knowledge
