Gold in the Water P. H. Mullen, 2015-12-15 The tale of a journey of self awareness self belief and the important relationships between coaches and a band of elite swimmers The London Times In California a team of talented young men begin pursuing the most elusive dream in sports the Olympic Games The pressure steadily increases as two best friends a mentor and his protégé reach the top of the world rankings and unexpectedly find themselves direct competitors Their teammates include an emerging star methodically plotting to retrace his father's path to Olympic glory as well as a super extraordinary athlete desperate to walk away from it all Led by one of the most passionate coaches in sports a brilliant and explosive strategist on a personal quest for redemption this team of dark horses and Olympic favorites works through escalating rivalries joyous triumphs and heartbreaking setbacks Author P H Mullen chronicles their journey to the 2000 Olympic Games and presents one of the most powerful and moving sports books ever written Boldly sweeping in literary power and pace this startling book will permanently change how you view the Olympic athlete It is a fascinating world of suspense and emotion where human desire for excellence rules over all and where there are no second chances for glory But above all Gold in the Water is a triumph of the human spirit Mullen does an excellent job not only of conveying the daily torture that elite swimmers go through in the pool but also of giving insight into lesser known aspects of swimming The New York Times A superb sports book Booklist starred review

Gold in the Water P. H. Mullen, 2003-02-25 Examines the psyches backgrounds and motivations of the United States 2000 Olympic swim team and describes the journey these swimmers must take to compete in the Olympics including training and competitions

Chasing Water Anthony Ervin, Constantine Markides, 2016-03-14 The Olympic swimmer reveals the wild and challenging journey that took place between two gold medals Inspiring humorous and often profound People Magazine Anthony Ervin is an Olympic swimmer who won the gold at nineteen and that may be one of the least interesting things about him An athlete of Jewish and African American descent who is also a practicing Buddhist he auctioned off the medal he won in Sydney to help raise funds for victims of the 2004 tsunami He had grown up battling Tourette's syndrome and later struggled with suicidal depression drinking and drugs and a period of homelessness This blend of memoir and biography written by Ervin in collaboration with trainer Constantine Markides is part spiritual quest part self destructive bender involving Zen temples fast motorcycles tattoo parlors and rock n roll bands revealing the journey that preceded his remarkable 2016 Olympic comeback as the oldest individual gold medal winner in swimming Winner of the 2018 Buck Dawson Author Award presented by the International Swimming Hall of Fame Gripping Readers will understand the psyche and life of elite athletes as never before Library Journal A celebrated Olympian recounts how he rose to the top of his sport crashed and found redemption The author never flinches at revealing his less than perfect past and the humility he demonstrates at coming to terms with his own egotism and personal shortcomings makes the book frequently compelling A provocative and refreshingly honest redemption memoir
