The Second Middle East Edition blends theory with contemporary management practice. Dr Marina Apaydin, American University of Beirut, joins the authoring team in this edition for significant enhancements to content and presentation of topics. New chapter opening cases have been added to feature companies and management personalities from the Middle East. Management Insights vignettes offer balanced representation of international as well as local, small to medium-sized companies and start-ups to ensure applicability of theory in a variety of contexts. Updated content and improved topics coverage ensure closer alignment with introductory management courses. Two new topics have been added: the history of management in the Arab world in Chapter 2 and Islamic ethics in Chapter 5. Improved content coverage includes a new Chapter 3 focusing on the Manager as a Person, improved and streamlined coverage of managerial processes relating to organizational culture in Chapter 4, and Managing in the Global Environment includes revised terminology consistent with International Business courses. Chapters 8 through 11 have gone through substantial revision to focus on control as part of managing the organizational structure and organizational learning as part of change and innovation. Chapter 16 includes contemporary topics on communication including social media influencers and a guide to networking. Dr Marina Apaydin is an Assistant Professor of Strategic Management at the Olayan School of Business at the American University of Beirut, Lebanon. Dr Omar Belkhouja is an Associate Professor of Strategic Management and International Business at the School of Business Administration at the American University of Sharjah, UAE. Andrew McHattie on Covered Warrants Andrew McHattie, 2002. The traditional company warrants market is set to be eclipsed by a new market which should offer huge opportunities for active investors. Revised regulations have paved the way for a new covered warrants market in London. The number of warrants available for trading by private investors on the London Stock Exchange (LSE) will multiply many times over. Warrants will become available on a broad range of blue chip companies, sector baskets, and on both UK and overseas indices. Investors will be able to buy both calls and puts. The vast majority of the new warrants will be exercisable for cash.

which will mean they can be traded free of stamp duty This book is intended as a primer for investors new to covered warrants although more experienced investors may also find some value in the timely information about the formation of the new market in London Readers used to dealing in traditional listed warrants in the UK will find the new covered warrants quite different Jargon is unavoidable but it is explained in the text and in the glossary at the back
