skin so prized by Southern women and so carefully guarded with bonnets veils and mittens against hot Georgia suns Seated with Stuart and Brent Tarleton in the cool shade of the porch of Tara her father's plantation that bright April afternoon of 1861 she made a pretty picture Her new green flowered muslin dress spread its twelve yards of billowing material over her hoops and exactly matched the flat heeled green morocco slippers her father had recently brought her from Atlanta The dress set off to perfection the seventeen inch waist the smallest in three counties and the tightly fitting basque showed breasts well matured for her sixteen years But for all the modesty of her spreading skirts the demureness of hair netted smoothly into a chignon and the quietness of small white hands folded in her lap her true self was poorly concealed The green eyes in the carefully sweet face were turbulent willful lusty with life distinctly at variance with her decorous demeanor Her manners had been imposed upon her by her mother's gentle admonitions and the sterner discipline of her mammy her eyes were her own On either side of her the twins lounged easily in their chairs squinting at the sunlight through tall mint garnished glasses as they laughed and talked their long legs booted to the knee and thick with saddle muscles crossed negligently Nineteen years old six feet two inches tall long of bone and hard of muscle with sunburned faces and deep auburn hair their eyes merry and arrogant their bodies clothed in identical blue coats and mustard colored breeches they were as much alike as two bolls of cotton

Gone with the Wind Herb Bridges, Terryl C. Boodman, 1989 Published in the spring of 1936 Margaret Mitchell's Gone With the Wind was an immediate and over whelming success millions of copies were sold in its first year alone By the time the film opened on December 15 1939 the anticipation and excitement were so great that the city of Atlanta declared the day an official holiday Since then more than 300 million people have seen the film and every year hundreds of thousands of copies of the novel are sold in dozens of languages This lavishly illustrated book is the ultimate behind the scenes history of the novel the film and the phenomenon of Gone With the Wind It includes wonderful anecdotes original quotes from the stars and the directors souvenir programs from the original premiere many rare never before published photographs and more From the smell of the smoke and the heat of the flames during the filming of the burning of Atlanta sequence to the soft touch of the red dust at the location Tara from the fatigue on the faces of cast and crew after grueling months of shooting to the thrill of premiere night you will experience the unfolding drama as if you were there Book jacket
