MacDonald,2006-11 This is a memoir account of the author s journey from a seventeen year old school boy to a combat soldier during the Korean War Reflecting back to the summer of 1950 utilizing his notes U S Army records and his memory he has drawn a picture in words of his movement from the easy going classroom life of high school to an infantry armor trained combat soldier He takes you into his family background and the why of his enlistment and carries the reader through basic advanced training and cadre duties of a 1950 s army life An assignment to a combat infantry regiment in a very hostile environment with an enemy and weather that causes heavy casualties is described in blunt detail The combat described is real and from the view point of the grunt soldier and not from the high command Color jacket hardcover binding Liberty Street Carol Chandler Malcarney,2015-11-13 Personal letters can provide us with a unique opportunity The letters in this collection offer a glimpse into the personal lives of two people whose lives like so many others were interrupted by World War II These letters date from August 1943 to March 1946 the time that Alfred Chandler served in the Army Medical Corps The majority of the 700 plus letters were written by Alfred and Janice his wife to each other They wrote faithfully whenever they were apart Alfred was facing an unforeseeable future as he embarked on his wartime assignment in Europe and Janice had her own challenges living back home with her family in Massachusetts It is unusual to have such an extensive collection of personal letters survive given the variety of circumstances which could have caused them to be lost or destroyed It is even more amazing that mail was so successfully delivered to battlefields and bases all over the world a truly major accomplishment Cruising World ,1980-07
