author of Your Face in Mine White Flights is a meditation on whiteness in American fiction and culture from the end of the civil rights movement to the present At the heart of the book Jess Row ties white flight the movement of white Americans into segregated communities whether in suburbs or newly gentrified downtowns to white writers setting their stories in isolated or emotionally insulated landscapes from the mountains of Idaho in Marilynne Robinson's Housekeeping to the claustrophobic households in Jonathan Franzen's The Corrections Row uses brilliant close readings of work from well known writers such as Don DeLillo Annie Dillard Richard Ford and David Foster Wallace to examine the ways these and other writers have sought imaginative space for themselves at the expense of engaging with race White Flights aims to move fiction to a more inclusive place and Row looks beyond criticism to consider writing as a reparative act What would it mean he asks if writers used fiction to approach each other again Row turns to the work of James Baldwin Dorothy Allison and James Alan McPherson to discuss interracial love in fiction while also examining his own family heritage as a way to interrogate his position A moving and provocative book that includes music film and literature in its arguments White Flights is an essential work of cultural and literary criticism The American Flint ,1938 The CBS Radio Mystery Theater Gordon Payton,Martin Grams, Jr.,2015-09-17 Almost every evening for nine years during the late 1970s and early 1980s the CBS Radio Mystery Theatre brought monsters murderers and mayhem together for an hour Created produced and directed by Himan Brown the series remains a landmark in radio drama This book is a detailed history and episode guide to the show Descriptive information includes exact titles airdates and rebroadcast dates episode numbers cast lists writer and adapter credits and a storyline synopsis This material comes directly from CBS press releases in order to insure complete accuracy Also included wherever possible are information about the actors and actresses quotes from performers and writers many from personal interviews anecdotes about various scripts and sound effects and other notes of interest Showmen's Motion Picture Trade Review ,1948 Bridging Two Eras Emily Newell Blair,1999 Because Blair s life essentially spanned two eras from the end of the nineteenth century through the middle of the twentieth she thought of herself as a bridge builder A dedicated feminist she wanted her autobiography to help women understand what life was like during that transition time She had moved from being a conventional middle class midwestern wife and mother to becoming an acclaimed author a nationally known feminist and vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee only two years after women gained the right to vote She felt that her story could encourage women to take their rightful places in public life Jacket The Pilot ,1902 The New York Dramatic Mirror ,1909 Dancing the Tao Sandra J.
