

Recounts

I am learning to write a recount that will inform and entertain my reader.

To be successful I will need to...

- include some of the five Ws in my opening - When? Where? Who? What? Why?
- write about something that has happened in the past
- write about what happened in order
- use time connectives e.g. In the morning, next, meanwhile, within hours, soon afterwards, weeks later, etc
- write in the past tense
- include powerful verbs e.g. roared, whizzed, scampered, struggled
- 'zoom in' on the part that would appeal to the reader the most
- use details and descriptive language to interest the reader
- give my opinion and refer back to the opening in my closing statement

Jumpstart! Talk for Learning Lyn Dawes, John Foster, 2015-11-19

Jumpstart Talk for Learning presents a collection of multi sensory games and activities that will jumpstart children s use of effective talk in the classroom This book offers practical and engaging ideas ranging from brief games to extended lesson suggestions It offers a basis for creating your own spoken language activities to match topics you are teaching and individual needs of your class Specifically written to help teachers with the direct teaching of talk skills required by the National Curriculum activities in the book encourage children to participate in group and class discussions use exploratory talk and share a range of points of view use talk imaginatively to develop understanding develop individual presentational talk take part in active drama sessions Jumpstart Talk for Learning includes a range of classroom activities that can be used in literacy lessons and integrated across the curriculum This essential resource will help teachers develop children s use of talk to understand one another and get things done together

Teaching Children to Write Pam Hodson, Deborah Jones, 2013-10-18 A recent OFSTED report identified the fact that while many teachers were confident about their teaching of reading too many are neglecting the teaching of writing in the Literacy Hour This book building on the process approach adopted by both National Literacy Strategy and National Curriculum 2000 addresses the fundamental question How do you teach writing Pam Hodson and Deborah Jones provide teachers with practical strategies support through a clear and concise rationale and explicit explanation of the different stages of the writing process This theoretical perspective is the basis of differentiated writing frames provided for the classroom use of teachers and pupils alike Thus invaluable support is given to teachers and student teachers of writing across a wide range of genres throughout Reception Key Stages 1 and 2 and in the early secondary years

Talk for Writing Across the Curriculum, How to Teach Non-Fiction Writing to 5-12 Year Olds (Revised Edition) Pie Corbett, Julia Strong, 2020-08-26 This bestselling resource has been fully updated putting formative assessment at the heart of the Talk for Writing process and showing how to help children love writing across the curriculum By helping children speak the language of non fiction in a fun engaging way before they attempt to write the Talk for Writing approach builds children s confidence and linguistic ability enabling them to craft their own writing In the new edition this practical resource offers Fully worked tried and tested examples of how to apply Talk for Writing to each non fiction text type A wide range of fun activities helping children internalise how to express and link text effectively A process that co constructs learning so that children learn how to structure text and create toolkits of key ingredients Guidance for teachers in England on how to apply the approach across the primary curriculum An OLC including new footage of Pie Corbett demonstrating Talk for Writing and new footage of classes engaged in the approach Advice on how to use the DVD and handouts to train all staff in the approach Evidence of impact from cold to hot tasks Designed for busy teachers Talk for Writing across the Curriculum second edition will help transform children's writing and attainment across the curriculum. This book celebrates the importance of talk in becoming and growing as a writer: talk to share ideas, talk to analyse text, talk to co-construct writing and to talk to evaluate writing. Throughout the book constantly underlines the importance of talk for learning and the many creative and rich ways talk can be used to help young writers internalise the rhythms and patterns of text. Full of practical ideas and activities, the teaching combines being creative and being critical in a wholly integrated way. An invaluable resource for primary school teachers. Debra Myhill, Professor of Education at the University of Exeter, UK. The teaching of reading has always taken priority in policy and practice in literacy. Pie Corbett and Julia Strong have produced a very welcome counterweight to that dominance in their Talk for Writing Across the Curriculum. It is so refreshing to see suggestions for teaching to bring elements of language together, especially when done in such an entertaining and engaging way as this. This new edition makes a classic even better. David Wray, Emeritus Professor, University of Warwick, UK. This latest update of Pie and Julia's best-selling book reflects changes in the curriculum, strengthening the T4W approach using cold and hot tasks, showing new worked examples of how to apply T4W to each non-fiction type and placing formative assessment at the heart of the process. It is exciting to see how all the best ideas and findings in education are converging, evidenced in this latest up-to-the-minute excellent publication. Shirley Clarke, Formative Assessment Expert.

Rise Up, Recount Love Becky Spell, 2011-12-21. The morning rises to engulf my world, revealing the majestic beauty with beams of infinite warmth. So is my love for you.
