Beauty and the Book Megan Benton,Ingrid D. Rowland,2000-01-01 After World War I the US was flooded with newspapers magazines radio stations and movies Many feared serious books would disappear altogether The concern caused a boom in fine editions valued for beauty craftsmanship or rarity rather than content and this is their story Books, Media and the Internet Shelley S. Peterson, Carol Jupiter, 2009-10-09 As editors of Books Media and the Internet David Booth Carol Jupiter and Shelley S Peterson present the work of colleagues from the conference A Place for Children's Literature in the New Literacies Classrooms April 2008 Within these pages teachers librarians and others concerned with literacy will find inspiration and strategies for melding technology and children's literature from practitioners who have found effective ways to engage young people with text both in print and on screen The contributors to this anthology include classroom teachers librarians university educators and journalists They speak not only to the technologically capable and media savvy teachers but also to the curious who seek starting points for using new technologies alongside traditional print media in their classrooms They show how multimedia and digital technologies expand our approaches to literacy education and how to extend and enrich our use of stories whatever the media with all ages Their articles cover a vast range of subjects arranged into 5 sections This book provides current information classroom examples and anecdotes as practical tools to help teachers use digital media and print texts to extend students learning The helpful Teaching Tools section at the end of the book explains how to use a variety of digital tools in the classroom Publishers, Readers, and Digital Engagement Marianne Martens, 2016-06-15 This book demonstrates how the roles of author marketer and reviewer are being redefined as online environments enable new means for young adults to participate in the books they love Prior to the expansion of digital technologies around reading teachers parents and librarians were the primary gatekeepers responsible for getting books into the hands of young people Now publishers can create disintermediated digital enclosures in which they can communicate directly with their reading audience This book exposes how teens contribute their immaterial and affective labor as they engage in participatory reading experiences via publishers and authors interactive websites and use of social media and how in turn publishers are able to use such labor as they get invaluable market research peer to peer recommendations and even content which can be used in other projects all virtually free of charge Dear Isaac Newton, You're Ruining My Life Rachel Hruza, 2018-03-20 As if seventh grade isn't hard enough Truth Trendon learns she has to wear a back brace to help her worsening scoliosis She decides gravity is to blame for curving her spine and ruining her life Thanks for nothing Isaac Newton Truth's brace is hard plastic tight and uncomfortable She has to wear a t-shirt under it and bulky clothes over it making her feel both sweaty and unfashionable She's terrified that her classmates are going to find out about it But it's hard keeping it a secret especially when gym class is involved and secrets quickly turn into lies When Truth's crush entrusts her with a big secret of his own it leads to even more lying Add to that a fight with her best friend a looming school wide presentation and mean rumors and it's a recipe for disaster As Truth navigates the ups and downs of middle school can she learn to accept her true self curvy spine and all A Future Untold Alina Siegfried, 2021-10-27 Why can't you understand those people who think so differently from you Why have we failed to meaningfully address climate change despite 40 years of clear climate science Why are so many of our systems of social support failing us At the root of the answers to these questions lies the extraordinary power of story The world is built upon stories stories we believe about ourselves and others narratives about the way things are and myths that define our relationship to the world around us Many of the stories and narratives that we subconsciously believe have led us down the dark path to rising inequality food insecurity unprecedented levels of polarisation and ecological instability on a planetary scale And because it was us humans who collectively authored these stories it is us who have the power to change them An entertaining and inspiring rallying cry A Future Untold urges us to return to the most fundamental driver of human behaviour and culture setting story Drawing heavily from her experience in environmental advocacy activism political communications spoken word and the entrepreneurial sector New Zealand National Poetry Slam champion Alina Siegfried AKA Ali Jacs translates the fundamentals of narrative change into authentic stories entertaining anecdotes new myths for humanity and a handful of powerful poems to provide a call to action for everyday citizens who believe that we can build a better future together
