Narrative Gravity Rukmini Bhaya Nair,2004-06-01 In this elegantly written and theoretically sophisticated work Rukmini Bhaya Nair asks why human beings across the world are such compulsive and inventive storytellers Extending current research in cognitive science and narratology she argues that we seem to have a genetic drive to fabricate as a way of gaining the competitive advantages such fictions give us She suggests that stories are a means of fusing causal and logical explanations of real events with emotional recognition so that the lessons taught to us as children and then throughout our lives via stories lay the cornerstones of our most crucial beliefs Nair's conclusion is that our stories really do make us up just as much as we make up our stories

A Night at the Shanley Hotel Jason Medina,2019-10-14 While driving along Route 209 through Napanoch New York a weary traveler stops for the night at a rural bed and breakfast called the Shanley Hotel What happens next is a series of paranormal events which he cannot explain nor fully comprehend His bazaar experiences soon drive him to the brink of madness as he encounters the spirits that are said to haunt this quaint hotel

Is It True? Max Cryer,2014-03-01 We can all remember the stories we were told as children Santa Claus lives at the North Pole St Bernard dogs carry brandy to help lost climbers Lady Godiva rode naked through Coventry They were great stories and we believed them But are they true Max Cryer sets out to investigate the truth or otherwise of ideas and beliefs we may have always been told are true but which on closer examination may not be For example Did Winston Churchill coin the term Iron Curtain OK is an American expression right Tulips come from Holland don't they Did Sarah Palin say I can see Russia from my house The subjects covered in this highly entertaining book are diverse ranging from politics science and social history to language music and the natural world Max Cryer approaches each with an open mind seeking to uncover the truth behind some of our most cherished beliefs Be prepared for surprises
