It Was Good Making Art To The Glory Of God:

It was Good Ned Bustard, Sandra Bowden, 2000 The goal of this book is to provide a deeper discussion of what believers practicing their discipline for God's glory would or should look like Rather than defending the believer's place in the arts this book is intended to be primarily about issues related to making art Page 9 It Was Good Keith Getty, 2013 What does it mean to be a creative individual who is a follower of the creative God This book seeks to answer that question through collections of essays which offer theoretical and practical insights into making music from a Christian perspective

Evangelicals and the Arts in Fiction John Weaver, 2013-04-19 This book is an exploration of how the relationship of evangelicals to the arts has been portrayed in fiction for the last century The author argues that evangelicals are consistently seen as enemies of the arts by non evangelical writers The artist typically represented by a literal artist occasionally by a scientist or reluctant messiah typically has to fight for liberation from such cliched character types as the failed evangelical artist the rube or the hypocritical pastor Rather than resist the cliché of anti art evangelicalism the book contends that evangelicals should embrace it this stereotype is only hurtful so long as one assumes that the arts represent a positive force in human society This work built off the scholarship of John Carey does not make that assumption Surveying the current pro artistic views of most evangelicals the author advances the argument that evangelicals need to return to their anti art roots By doing so they would align themselves with the most radical artistic elements of modernism rather than with the classicists that the movement currently seems to prefer and provide space for themselves to critique how secular artistic stereotypes of evangelicals have economically and artistically marginalized the evangelicals community A Redemptive Theology of Art David A. Covington, 2018-05-01 A Redemptive Theology of Art develops a biblical systematic and practical theology of aesthetics It begins with the roots and ontology of aesthetics vs art and the architecture and narrative of affection and passion their woes and their glory Those who would search the Bible find little support for art as commonly conceived in the West The language of aesthetics applied to the maker's intentions the qualities of the work and the responses of the audience better addresses the questions of beauty and better suits the discussion of human actions beliefs and culture than the language of art does The Bible yields more consistent and helpful answers to questions about the broader category of aesthetics than it does to questions about art leading in turn to better questions and a more practical and theological appreciation of human affections beauty and delight and the many paths by which people including Christians pursue them Using the categories and definitions from Scripture Covington gives hope and help not only for those who labor in the arts but for everyone who cares about the passions that motivate us We were made for God's delight and though sin and bondage plague our passions God can shape our fun feelings desires affections and aversions Feelings are neither objective nor subjective they are redeemable Borrowing key ideas from other Christian writers on the arts or aesthetics Covington explores the connection between orthodox Protestant theology and a responsible respectful treatment of arts artists and all

aesthetic fields of human work and speech The Culturally Savvy Christian Dick Staub,2008-09-09 In The Culturally Savvy Christian his incisive critique of contemporary culture and religion Dick Staub concludes that though it is influential American popular culture is generally superficial diversionary mindless and celebrity driven spiritually delusional moralistic therapeutic and deistic and soulless sustained not by art craft and ideas but by the mad pursuit of profit propped up by marketing and technology Similarly American Christianity has devolved into its own mindless diversionary and celebrity driven superficiality Because humans are created in God's image with spiritual intellectual creative moral and relational capacities we long for more yet the true seeker faces the lose lose alternatives of a soul numbing culture and a vacuous Christianity lite The renaissance we need in both faith and culture will originate in a deep spiritual renewal that restores God's image in us and creates a new breed of culturally savvy thoughtful creatives who rekindle the spiritual intellectual and creative legacy of Christians as enrichers of culture Arts Ministry Michael J. Bauer,2013-08-22 First United Methodist Church in Augusta Georgia gives concerts to raise money for local service organizations Trinity Lutheran Church in Mission Kansas has been sponsoring a religious art show for more than twenty five years Fellowship Lutheran Church runs a Christian arts camp for young people every summer These are just three of the eighteen case studies of practicing arts ministries in this book in which Michael Bauer encourages the nurture and support of all the creative gifts of God's people Bauer lays a solid foundation for arts ministry grounding it in the historic Christian tradition and urging churches to expand their engagement with the creative arts to live and worship in full color as he puts it A concluding chapter clearly lays out how to develop an arts ministry helping readers to take these ideas from theory to practice to embrace and celebrate the continuing creative activity of God in the church The Cape Town Commitment: A Confession of Faith, A Call to Action Darrell L. Bock,2013-06-14 The Cape Town Commitment which arose from The Third Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization Cape Town 2010 stands in the historic line of The Lausanne Covenant 1974 and The Manila Manifesto 1989 It has been translated into twenty five languages and has commanded wide acceptance around the world The Commitment is set in two parts Part 1 is a Confession of Faith crafted in the language of covenantal love Part 2 is a Call to Action The local church mission agencies special interest groups and Christians in the professions are all urged to find their place in its outworking This annotated bibliography of The Cape Town Commitment arranged by topic has been compiled by specialists in a range of fields As such it is the first bibliography of its kind Arranged in sections for graduate level teaching Equally useful for research students Creative Church Handbook J. s culture Christianity has an image problem While the culture we inhabit presents us with an increasingly anti Christian and disenchanted position the church in the West has not helped its case by becoming anti intellectual fragmented and out of touch with the relevancy of Jesus to all aspects of contemporary life The muting of the Christian voice its imagination and its collective conscience have diminished the prospect of having a genuine missionary encounter with others today Cultural apologetics attempts to demonstrate not only the truth of the Gospel but also its desirability by reestablishing Christianity as the answer that satisfies our three universal human longings truth goodness and beauty In Cultural Apologetics philosopher and professor Paul Gould sets forth a fresh and uplifting model for cultural engagement rooted in the biblical account of Paul s speech in Athens which details practical steps for establishing Christianity as both true and beautiful reasonable and satisfying You ll be introduced to The idea of cultural apologetics as distinct from traditional apologetics The path from disenchantment with how we understand reality to re enchantment with the reality of the spiritual nature of things The practical tools of good cultural engagement conscience reason and imagination Equip yourself to see and help others see the world as it is through the lens of the Spirit deeply beautiful mysterious and sacred With creative insights Cultural Apologetics prepares readers to share a vision of the Christian faith that is both plausible and desirable offering clarity for those who have become disoriented in the haze of modern Western culture A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David

Claydon,2005 An Hour on Sunday Nancy Beach,2016-10-11 Today s spiritually searching culture is less inclined than ever to attend church Yet no time of the week is filled with more life changing potential than Sunday morning Imagine experiences that bring people heart to heart with God messages in which God s truth connects to everyday life transcendent moments that leave people awestruck and transformed That s what can happen when you unleash the arts in your church through the power of the Holy Spirit An Hour on Sunday is not about nitty gritty programming details or cookie cutter how to s It s about foundational issues ten enduring principles that unite artists and ministry leaders around a common language empower artists and pastors to effectively work together create the potential for moments that matter on Sunday morning An Hour on Sunday is for worship and arts ministry leaders pastors and teachers artists including musicians writers dancers actors visual artists film makers light and sound engineers and anyone who believes in the limitless potential of the arts in their church Whimsically illustrated written with passion and humor and filled with stories of both success and failure An Hour on Sunday explores the deep shaping forces that can make your hour on Sunday a time of transformation and wonder for believers and seekers alike Soul Stirrings Jeanne Marie Graham,2022-09-07 An engaging instructive and nourishing

Beholding Beauty Jason R. McConnell, 2022-03-15 Beholding Beauty Worshiping God through the Arts casts a vision for how the church can integrate a theology of beauty and aesthetics into its worship practices Unlike other books that only explore beauty and aesthetic in the abstract Beholding Beauty is a practical theology that inspires Christians to intentionally incorporate the arts into their everyday lives and their church's weekly worship services It is specifically designed for pastors and worship leaders who wish to craft theologically coherent aesthetically invigorating and artistically stimulating worship services and for all Christians who desire to contemplate the nature of beauty and art from a biblical theological and liturgical perspective Whether you are an accomplished artist or a novice to the art world this book will deepen your understanding of God as the original artist who uniquely calls human beings to cocreate with him It will challenge your presuppositions and convictions about the place of beauty and art in the Christian life and the life of the church It encourages Christian artists to be even more creative and prolific and it compels non artists to consider the artistic gifts and talents God has given them

Creativity as Sacrifice James M. Watkins, 2015-01-01 Theological interest in art is at a premium However theological engagement with art is often enacted without a clear sense of method This text argues for a theological methodology in engaging the arts and specifically the author puts forward a theological model for understanding human creativity in the light of Jesus sacrificial redemption In dialogue with theology philosophy psychology and art theory the author establishes the relevance and applicability of an incarnational and sacrificial model of human creativity Theological models also do more than provide a conceptual framework for theological inquiries They engage the imagination A theological model for human creativity is like an invitation to join in the creative vision God has for the world and to embody this vision in one s own creative work Therefore Creativity as Sacrifice does not merely articulate a conceptual framework for human creativity it also casts a vision for human life as a creative response to the gracious gifts of a creative God
