Encyclopedia Douglas M. Considine, Glenn D. Considine, 2013-12-11 Advancements in science and engineering have occurred at a surprisingly rapid pace since the release of the seventh edition of this encyclopedia Large portions of the reference have required comprehensive rewriting and new illustrations Scores of new topics have been included to create this thoroughly updated eighth edition The appearance of this new edition in 1994 marks the continuation of a tradition commenced well over a half century ago in 1938 Van Nostrand's Scientific Encyclopedia First Edition was published and welcomed by educators worldwide at a time when what we know today as modern science was just getting underway The early encyclopedia was well received by students and educators alike during a critical time span when science became established as a major factor in shaping the progress and economy of individual nations and at the global level A vital need existed for a permanent science reference that could be updated periodically and made conveniently available to audiences that numbered in the millions The pioneering VNSE met these criteria and continues today as a reliable technical information source for making private and public decisions that present a backdrop of technical alternatives Power and Perspective Karina Corrigan, Stephanie H. Tung, Bing Wang (Museum cataloging assistant), Tingting Xu, 2022-01-01 A critical reconsideration of the history of photography that explores how commerce and conflict fueled its practice in nineteenth century China Photography's development as a new form of art and technology coincided with profound changes in the way China engaged with the world in the nineteenth century The medium evolved in response to war trade travel and a desire for knowledge about an unfamiliar place Power and Perspective provides a rich account of the exchanges among photographers artists patrons and subjects in the treaty port cities that connected China and the West Drawing primarily from the Peabody Essex Museum's historic and largely unpublished collection of photographs this generously illustrated volume examines the confrontations and collaborations that shaped the adoption and practice of photography in China Offering an original reassessment of the colonial legacy of the medium Power and Perspective addresses photography's representations of racial hierarchy and its entanglement with histories of European imperialism in nineteenth century China Distributed for the Peabody Essex Museum Exhibition Schedule Peabody Essex Museum Salem MA September 24 2022 April 2 2023

Classical Literature and Posthumanism Giulia Maria Chesi, Francesca Spiegel, 2019-11-14 The subject of the posthuman of what it means to be or to cease to be human is emerging as a shared point of debate at large in the natural and social sciences and the humanities This volume asks what classical learning can bring to the table of posthuman studies assembling chapters that explore how exactly the human self of Greek and Latin literature understands its own relation to animals monsters objects cyborgs and robotic devices With its widely diverse habitat of heterogeneous bodies minds and selves classical literature again and again blurs the boundaries between the human and the non human not to equate and confound

the human with its other but playfully to highlight difference and hybridity as an invitation to appraise the animal monstrous or mechanical machinic parts lodged within humans This comprehensive collection unites contributors from across the globe each delving into a different classical text or narrative and its configuration of human subjectivity how human selves relate to other entities around them For students and scholars of classical literature and the posthuman this book is a first point of reference
