Jack Jill Louisa May Alcott:

Jack and Jill Louisa May Alcott, 2021-04-24 Clear the lulla was the general cry on a bright December afternoon when all the boys and girls of Harmony Village were out enjoying the first good snow of the season Up and down three long coasts they went as fast as legs and sleds could carry them One smooth path led into the meadow and here the little folk congregated one swept across the pond where skaters were darting about like water bugs and the third from the very top of the steep hill ended abruptly at a rail fence on the high bank above the road There was a group of lads and lasses sitting or leaning on this fence to rest after an exciting race and as they reposed they amused themselves with criticising their mates still absorbed in this most delightful of out door sports Here comes Frank Minot looking as solemn as a judge cried one as a tall fellow of sixteen spun by with a set look about the mouth and a keen sparkle of the eyes fixed on the distant goal with a do or die expression Here s Molly Loo And little Boo sang out another and down came a girl with flying hair carrying a small boy behind her so fat that his short legs stuck out from the sides and his round face looked over her shoulder like a full moon There s Gus Burton doesn t he go it and such a very long boy whizzed by that it looked almost as if his heels were at the top of the hill when his head was at the bottom Hurrah for Ed Devlin and a general shout greeted a sweet faced lad with a laugh on his lips a fine color on his brown cheek and a gay word for every girl he passed Laura and Lotty keep to the safe coast into the meadow and Molly Loo is the only girl that dares to try this long one to the pond I wouldn t for the world the ice can t be strong yet though it is cold enough to freeze one s nose off said a timid damsel who sat hugging a post and screaming whenever a mischievous lad shook the fence No she isn t here s Jack and Jill going like fury Clear the track For jolly Jack sang the boys who had rhymes and nicknames for nearly every one 4 Down came a gay red sled bearing a boy who seemed all smile and sunshine so white were his teeth so golden was his hair so bright and happy his whole air Behind him clung a little gypsy of a girl with black eyes and hair cheeks as red as her hood and a face full of fun and sparkle as she waved Jack s blue tippet like a banner with one hand and held on with the other Jack and Jill Louisa May Alcott, 1905 A year in the life of the boys and girls and particularly Jack and Jill of Harmony Village as they leave their childhood and enter young adulthood
