Breast Cancer Elaine Embrey, 2009 On the morning of surgery Ron came into the bathroom as I was getting dressed took one look at me and knew that this was a difficult time for me seeing my red eyes from crying so hard Without saying a word he took me into his arms and held me close as we both burst into tears I felt his body shaking as I'm sure he felt mine We just stood there sobbing and holding each other We both needed that We had been strong for each other long enough Now it was time to let it all out It was so cleansing I thank God for that moment and for a man who loves me enough to cry with me at a time like this Travel the path with a breast cancer patient and her husband as they take this courageous journey together Elaine Embrey R N gives an informative and detailed account from diagnosis through reconstruction and all the unexpected bumps in between Elaine has the unique ability to take today's confusing medical terms and procedures and explain them clearly enough for anyone to understand. This book is a must have for all who are looking for real answers on how to stand victorious through this challenge. Elaine's husband Ron also shares his perspective in a heart tugging fashion which will help all friends and family members relate to a loved one in this situation. Elaine Embrey is a retired Registered Nurse who survived breast cancer and now lives with her husband Ron in Bay City Michigan. While going through her journey she grew in character and in her faith. She now feels compelled to share her story and everything she has learned along the way in the hopes of helping others who have to travel this same path. Alexander's Care of the Patient in Surgery - E-Book Jane C.
