Music and Temple Ritual in South India William Tallotte, 2022-12-30 Music and Temple Ritual in South India Performing for Iva documents the musical practices of the periyam am a South Indian instrumental ensemble of professional musicians who perform during the rituals and festivals of high caste Brahmanical Tamil Hindu temples dedicated to the Pan Indian god iva an important patron of music since at least the tenth century It explores the ways in which music and ritual are mutually constitutive illuminating the cultural logics whereby performing and listening are integral to the kinetic sensory and affective experiences that enable shape and stimulate ritual communication in present day devotional Hinduism More than a rich and vivid ethnographic description of a local tradition the book also develops a comprehensive and original analytical model in which music is understood as both a situated and creative activity and where the fluid relationship between humans and non humans in this case divine beings is truly taken into consideration The Sutra of Golden Light R. E. Emmerick,2016-01-01 The present volume contains a literal translation of the Sanskrit text of the Suvarṇabhasottamasūtra The translation is based on the elaborate critical edition of the Sanskrit text published by J Nobel Leipzig 1937 taking account of his subsequent improvements the Nachtrag and Berichtigungen published with his edition and various suggestions to be found in the critical apparatus to his 1944 edition of the Tibetan The Tibetan has been compared carefully throughout In cases where the Sanskrit
