Goodbye East End An Evacuees Story:

Goodbye East End David Merron, 2015-07-02 As Hitler's bombs threatened London during World War Two eight year old David Merron was removed from his family and close knit Jewish community in the East End and evacuated to the safety of the English countryside Placed into the car of strangers life was sometimes unpredictable and lonely But with time the rural world became an exciting adventure playground in which he flourished Set against a dramatic wartime backdrop Goodbye East End is about the conflict between a London boy's unexpected love of the countryside and his guilt about not missing home as much as he might It's the moving story of a childhood experience that changed a young boy's life forever The Kindertransport Jennifer Craig-Norton, 2019-06-25 A timely study of the effects of family separation on child refugees using newly discovered archival sources from the WWII era Highly recommended Choice The Kindertransport an organized effort to extract children living under the threat of Nazism lives in the popular memory as well as in literature as a straightforward act of rescue and salvation but these celebratory accounts leave little room for a deeper more complex analysis This volume reveals that in fact many children experienced difficulties with settlement they were treated inconsistently by refugee agencies their parents had complicated reasons for giving them up and their caregivers had a variety of motives for taking them in Against the grain of many other narratives Jennifer Craig Norton emphasizes the use of newly discovered archival sources which include the correspondence of refugee agencies carers Kinder and their parents and juxtaposes this material with testimonial accounts to show readers a more nuanced and complete picture of the Kindertransport In an era in which the family separation of refugees has commanded considerable attention this book is a timely exploration of the effects of family separation as it was experienced by child refugees in the age of fascism Diamond Mountain B. G.

Nettelton, 2025-09-30 Lesotho 1962 In the breathtaking rugged mountains of a country on the brink of independence one woman is torn between two futures Philippa Tremain has meticulously planned her escape from the untamed land of her birth securing a place in the glittering world of Cape Town society with her wealthy diamond heir fiancé But when a shocking betrayal and a terrifying plane crash leave her stranded with Stuart Price a rugged pilot who awakens a passion that defies all reason her choice becomes one of life and death Their desperate lie to survive the night posing as newlyweds plunges them into a shadowy world of illicit diamond smugglers blackmail and political intrigue that threatens to destroy not only their futures but their lives As personal and political tensions escalate Philippa is caught in a dangerous crossroads between loyalty duty and a love that could cost her everything In a land where a fortune can be unearthed in an instant and a life can be lost just as quickly she must decide what she is willing to risk the secure life she was promised or the sweeping love that could forge a new destiny for them all Drawing from the explosive real life case files of her own father a colonial administrator who investigated illicit diamond buyers and the chilling realities of ritual medicine murder in 1960s Lesotho B G Nettelton weaves a tale that is both deeply personal and historically rich Perfect for readers who love the sweeping sagas of Lucinda Riley the emotional depth of Kristin Hannah and the raw adventure of Wilbur Smith Diamond Mountain is an unforgettable novel for those who love stories of heroines torn between duty and desire set against a continent in upheaval
