distinctions between art and art history gave way as conceptual thinking provided artists and art historians with a common means to reassess what art could be and do in the world Bailey assesses the results of artful and scholarly inquiries combining creative activity with intellectual rigor to proffer new approaches to a variety of social and environmental concerns ranging from questions about human identity including race class gender and sexuality to activist efforts to redress everything from abortion access to migrants rights to climate change This book provides both a historical overview of these developments and close analyses of key works and texts spanning 1950 to the present and encompassing broad geographic scope with special attention paid to Indigenous art The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history and contemporary art

The Odyssey of Homer, with the Hymns, Epigrams, and Battle of the Frogs and Mice Homer, 1855 Germaine de Staël, George Sand, and the Victorian Woman Artist Linda M. Lewis, 2003 By examining literary portraits of the woman as artist Linda M Lewis traces the matrilineal inheritance of four Victorian novelists and poets George Eliot Elizabeth Barrett Browning Geraldine Jewsbury and Mrs Humphry Ward She argues that while the male Romantic artist saw himself as god and hero the woman of genius lacked a guiding myth until Germaine de Stael and George Sand created one The protagonists of Stael s Corinne and Sand s Consuelo combine attributes of the goddess Athena the Virgin Mary Virgil s Sibyl and Dante s Beatrice Lewis illustrates how the resulting Corinne Consuelo effect is exhibited in scores of English artist as heroine narratives particularly in the works of these four prominent writers who most consciously and elaborately allude to the French literary matriarchs Exploring a connection between French and English literature and providing fresh insight Germaine de Stael George Sand and the Victorian Woman Artist makes a major contribution to our understanding of nineteenth century feminism Jacket

Primitivism and Twentieth-century Art Jack D. Flam, Miriam Deutch, 2003 This is a much needed important collection a goldmine of sources for scholars and students The texts articulate the key Primitivist aesthetic discourses of the period offering crucial insight into the complex and always changing nexus between culture politics and representation Because of the breadth of the materials covered and the controversies they raise this anthology is one of the all too rare volumes that not only will provide reference materials for years to come but also will feature centrally in classroom discussions Suzanne Preston Blier author of African Vodun Art Psychology and Power For almost a century art historians have fretted about the notion of primitivism in the arts This comprehensive in both senses of the word anthology is a peerless source of the history of responses to works categorized as primitive In its range the book touches upon all the troubling questions formal anthropological political historical that have bedeviled the study of the arts of Oceania Africa and North and South America and provides the grounds at last for intelligent pursuit of keener distinctions I regard this book as a superb contribution to the study of Modern art in fact indispensable Dore Ashton author of Noguchi East and West An extraordinarily useful and complete collection of primary documents many translated for the first time into English and almost all unlikely to be encountered elsewhere without serious effort Its five sections each with a lively and scholarly introduction reveal the diverse views of artists and writers on primitive art from Matisse Picasso and Fry to many far less known and sometimes surprising figures The book also uncovers the politics and aesthetics of the major museum exhibitions that gained acceptance for art that had been both reviled and mythologized Recent texts included are all germane This book will be invaluable for any college course on the topic Shelly Errington author of The Death of Authentic Primitive Art and Other Tales of Progress An exceptionally valuable anthology of seventy documents most heretofore unavailable in English on the ongoing controversies surrounding Primitivism and Modern art Insightfully chosen and annotated the collection is brilliantly introduced by Jack Flam s essay on the historical progression contexts and cultural complexities of more than one hundred years ideas about Primitivism Rich timely illuminating Herbert M Cole author of Icons Ideals and Power in the Art of Africa
