Fuchsia Dunlop, 2023-11-07 Finalist for the 2024 IACP Award for Literary or Historical Food Writing An NPR 2023 Books We Love Pick A Food Wine Best Food Book of 2023 A Financial Times Best Food and Drink Book of 2023 One of Smithsonian's Ten Best Books About Food of 2023 The world's most sophisticated gastronomic culture brilliantly presented through a banquet of thirty Chinese dishes Chinese was the earliest truly global cuisine When the first Chinese laborers began to settle abroad restaurants appeared in their wake Yet Chinese has the curious distinction of being both one of the world's best loved culinary traditions and one of the least understood For more than a century the overwhelming dominance of a simplified form of Cantonese cooking ensured that few foreigners experienced anything of its richness and sophistication but today that is beginning to change In Invitation to a Banquet award winning cook and writer Fuchsia Dunlop explores the history philosophy and techniques of Chinese culinary culture In each chapter she examines a classic dish from mapo tofu to Dongpo pork knife scraped noodles to braised pomelo pith to reveal a distinctive aspect of Chinese gastronomy whether it's the importance of the soybean the lure of exotic ingredients or the history of Buddhist vegetarian cuisine Meeting food producers chefs gourmets and home cooks as she tastes her way across the country Fuchsia invites readers to join her on an unforgettable journey into Chinese food as it is cooked eaten and considered in its homeland Weaving together history mouthwatering descriptions of food and on the ground research conducted over the course of three decades Invitation to a Banquet is a lively landmark tribute to the pleasures and mysteries of Chinese cuisine China and the International System, 1840-1949 David Scott, 2008-11-07 As China continues its rapid ascent within the international system questions of where it came from have particular relevance Combining history with international relations theory David Scott considers China's first substantive modern period of encounter with the West from 1840 through 1949 a period characterized as the Century of Humiliation During this time China fell from Middle Kingdom preeminence to a position in the international system that remained an enigmatic and challenging one too strong to be taken over as a colony yet not strong enough to shape its own destiny At the heart of Scott's study is encounter and with it questions of power presence and perceptions He examines the images hopes and fears that were evoked during China's century long subservience to external powers including opposing views of China as a threat or China as the sick man of Asia and the West as evil or the West as savior China and the Chinese are explored in terms of their interaction with the international system with a particular focus on America and Australia California Fish and Game, 1917 Tourism and Animal Ethics David A. Fennell, 2024-02-26 This timely book provides a critical account of the role that animals play in the tourism industry representing an extension of the sustainability imperative and environmental theory Written by a leading academic and author this volume explores the rich history of animal ethics research both inside and outside of tourism studies for the purpose of providing greater theoretical empirical conceptual and practical guidance It examines historical and current practices of the use of animals in the tourism industry from both in situ to ex situ consumption and production perspectives identifying a range of ethical issues associated with such use This second edition has been updated to reflect contemporary research and thinking around animal welfare hunting and consumption with new chapters on animals as food and policy at the national and international levels New case studies have been integrated throughout Offering an interdisciplinary overview of the moral issues related to the use of animals in tourism through cutting edge research this book is essential reading for students academics and researchers interested in tourism ethics sustainable tourism and wildlife tourism
