Los Love Predicament Catholic Intellectual:

In the Lógos of Love James Heft, Una M. Cadegan, 2016 This volume brings together scholars of theology history law and media studies of religion who explore the Catholic intellectual tradition from the perspectives of these disciplines Each essay explores both the promise of Catholic intellectual life and its contemporary predicaments The Idea of Tradition in the Late Modern World Thomas Albert Howard, 2020-02-10 Our late modern era is marked by the rapidity of change waxing pluralism focus on the future not the past the elevation of personal choice over communal obligation and for some a sense of spiritual and intellectual disorientation that can lead to resentment fear nostalgia and or a disordered desire for absolute certainty and rigid authority How can religious traditions be maintained and even thrive in such an environment How do they negotiate the fluidity of it all and transmit their beliefs and practices to future generations What should be the role of academic authorities vis vis religious authorities in this process Finally what can different religious traditions learn from one another on the general topic of tradition This volume invites readers to participate in a candid ecumenical and interreligious conversation involving Christian Jewish and Muslim voices The editor and contributors alike contend that the Abrahamic faiths while having honest differences face common challenges from contemporary culture which often fosters incomprehension about the depth breadth and intellectual rigor of religious traditions At the same time traditions can become disengaged and moribund without attending to them with careful reflection discernment and conversation with others who hold different points of view With contributions from David Novak James L Heft S M David Bentley Hart Ebrahim Moosa Sarah Hinlicky Wilson Teaching the Whole Student David Schoem, Christine Modey, Edward P. St. John, 2023-07-03 Published in association with Teaching the Whole Student is a compendium of engaged teaching approaches by faculty across disciplines These inspiring authors offer models for instructors who care deeply about their students respect and recognize students social identities and lived experiences and are interested in creating community and environments of openness and trust to foster deep learning academic success and meaning making The authors in this volume stretch the boundaries of academic learning and the classroom experience by seeking to identify the space between subject matter and a student's core values and prior knowledge They work to find the interconnectedness of knowledge understanding meaning inquiry and truth They appreciate that students bring their full lives and experiences their heart and spirit into the classroom just as they bring their minds and intellectual inquiry These approaches contribute to student learning and the core academic purposes of higher education help students find meaning and purpose in their lives and help strengthen our diverse democracy through students active participation and leadership in civic life They also have a demonstrated impact on critical and analytical thinking student retention and academic success personal well being commitments to civic engagement diversity and social justice Topics discussed Teacher student relationships and community building How teaching the whole student increases persistence and completion rates How an open learning environment

Hungarian Catholic Intellectuals in Contemporary Romania Marc Roscoe Loustau, 2022-06-27 Set against the backdrop of the rise of right wing Christian nationalism in Eastern Europe this book declares that Catholic theologians ought to be understood and studied as intellectuals socially and historically situated creators of national cultural traditions While the Romanian government funds thriving schools for the country's Hungarian minority NGOs founded by Transylvanian Hungarians continue to organize volunteers to supplement this formal pedagogy These volunteers understand themselves to be reviving a national tradition of serving the people by educating the region's rural Hungarian populace While this book is about the challenges Catholic educators face in teaching villagers it is just as much about their new effort to call groups of volunteers from across the border in Hungary to teach alongside them In these encounters Transylvanian Hungarian educators remake their intellectual tradition especially ideas about the basis of pedagogical authority the ethical character of the nation and the social location of selfhood When contemporary Catholic intellectuals urge teachers to manifest their national self consciousness they carry with them the assumption that selfhood emerges where humans collaborate with God While Transylvanian Hungarian intellectuals are enmeshed in constant competition by focusing on contemporary theologians New Magyar Apostles unmasks the struggle over the nature of divine presence that animates this revival of a Christian national tradition of intellectual service

Love and Power Michael J. Perry, 1991-10-17 In this sequel to his Morality Politics and Law Michael Perry addresses the proper relation of moral convictions to the politics of a morally pluralistic society While his analysis focuses on religious morality Perry's argument applies to morality generally Contending that no justification of a contested political choice can be neutral among competing conceptions of human good the author develops an ideal of ecumenical politics in which moral convictions about human good can be brought to bear in a productive way in political argument

Anarchism and Syndicalism in the Colonial and Postcolonial World, 1870-1940, 2010-11-11 Narratives of anarchist and syndicalist history during the era of the first globalization and imperialism 1870-1930 have overwhelmingly been constructed around a Western European tradition centered on discrete national cases This parochial perspective typically ignores transnational connections and the contemporaneous existence of large and influential libertarian movements in Africa Asia Latin America and Eastern Europe Yet anarchism and syndicalism from their very inception at the First International were conceived and developed as international movements By focusing on the neglected cases of the colonial and postcolonial world this volume underscores the worldwide dimension of these movements and their centrality in anti colonial and anti imperialist struggles Drawing on in depth historical analyses of the ideology structure and praxis of anarchism syndicalism it also provides fresh perspectives and lessons for those interested in understanding their resurgence today Contributors are Luigi Biondi Arif Dirlik Anthony

Reason to Believe Richard Purtill, 2009-09-03 Is religious belief reasonable Of course the so called New Atheists such as Richard Dawkins and Sam Harris energetically say No Many others including some believers insist that faith is utterly beyond reasoned argument Faith they declare is believing something that reason tells you can t be so In this way they think they shield belief from rational criticism But philosopher Richard Purtill will have none of that approach to religion In this newly updated classic work Purtill carefully applies the power of the mind to understanding whether there is a rational basis for certain religious beliefs His focus is on widely held Christian beliefs although much of what he says applies also to other religious traditions Purtill assesses the common objections to religious belief the claims that religious tenets are nonsensical wishful thinking the result of gullibility immoral or refuted by modern discoveries Then he considers the arguments in favor of Christian belief by studying the nature of faith of the universe of morality of happiness and the world with God in it He also scrutinizes certain beliefs involving claims of Christian revelation the credentials of revelation the idea of God Jesus as God s Son organized religion and the last things death judgment heaven and hell The two appendices tackle the Christian doctrine of the Atonement and the influence of certain Christian writers on the revival of Christian belief in the 20th century An updated For Further Reading section is included Reason to Believe is not a work of revealed theology or religious devotion it is a highly readable book on the philosophy of religion aimed at the reader who wants to think seriously about religion but who doesn t know all the philosophers and theologians jargon and who may or may not be a committed believer Stoics and Neostoics Mark P.O. Morford, 2017-03-14 In a vivid re creation of late sixteenth century Flemish intellectual life Mark Morford explores the intertwined careers of one of the period s most influential thinkers and one of its most original artists Justus Lipsius and Peter Paul Rubens He investigates the scholarship of Lipsius 1547 1606 whose revival of Roman Stoicism guided his contemporaries during the revolt of the Netherlands from the rule of Spain and whose teaching prepared future leaders in church and state Maintaining that Lipsius thought reached Peter Paul Rubens through his brother Philip Rubens Morford analyzes the artist s use of Stoic philosophical and political allegory beginning with his painting The Four Philosophers This book discusses the revival of Stoicism in northern Europe focusing on Lipsius editions of Tacitus and Seneca his widely read handbooks on constancy and politics and his interaction with leading scholars and public figures As his letters reveal Lipsius was inconsistent in his life and unsuccessful in reconciling Stoicism with Catholic doctrine Rubens although at first sympathetic to the doctrines of Lipsius is shown to have later transcended their limitations Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the

Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Catholic Literature and Film Nancy Enright, 2016-11-21 Catholic Literature and Film Incarnational Love and Suffering is meant to be considered as a work of literary criticism not film adaptation studies In it the author explores six literary works dealing with Catholic themes and the film versions of these works The discussion of the films is at the service of analyzing the texts Underlying all the discussions is an incarnational sacramental view of the texts which links to my interpretation of the film versions of them Catholic and actually any Christian interpretation of literature or film or any other art form is rooted in an iconic and sacramental understanding of imagery as a means of conveying the sacred Catholic spirituality lends itself to this sort of approach as it is deeply rooted in the ability to see sacred things through physical means A key sub theme is romantic love in connection with salvation which Charles Williams one of the Inklings the group of British writers including J R R Tolkien and C S Lewis who met and discussed literature and theology calls the theology of romantic love as well as the sub themes of redemptive suffering and grace My interest in the book is not an analysis of cinematography per se but on the films as vehicles for religious ideas What makes this approach unique is that it doesn't deal with only faith and film as Peter Frazer does very well in his book Images of the Passion The Sacramental Mode in Film for example it also goes beyond the realm of strict literary criticism in its tackling of how religiously oriented works of literature are affected by the transformation into film Book Review Digest, 1910

From Privileged to Dispossessed James W Long, 1988-01-01 From Privileged to Dispossessed is a social and economic history of the foreign settlers who emigrated to the Volga region in Russia in the eighteenth century Concentrating on the years 1860 to 1917 a period of rapid change in Russia it is at once a detailed look at life in the lower Volga valley and a vital chapter in the history of the multinational Russian Empire assessing as it does the impact of national policy in the outlying provinces James W Long's book shatters the prevailing view of the Volga Germans in Russia showing them not untouched by time but remarkably adaptable to ever changing circumstances It reveals how numerous nineteenth century government reforms and rapid economic development and the subsequent restructuring of state and society transformed their lives for good and ill It also illustrates the striking continuity of a misguided nationality policy that alienated a loyal productive minority group by means of rigorous Russification and expropriation of landholdings From Privileged to Dispossessed makes extensive use of rare materials from major Soviet research libraries and of oral interviews with Volga German immigrants The book will be of special interest not only to historians but to people of Volga German descent whose ancestors had learned to survive in a foreign land a century before they came to the North American prairies in the 1870s Overheard in Seville 2002, 2002-10-15 An annual publication Overheard in Seville Bulletin of the George Santayana Society includes scholarly articles on George Santayana as well as announcements of publications and meetings pertaining to Santayana Scholarship Overheard in Seville 2003, 2003-10-15 An annual publication Overheard in Seville Bulletin of the George
