The Illustrated sporting & dramatic news, 1876 The New World, 1841 The Examiner, 1838 The American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1997 After more than fifteen years, this initial volume of the American Film Institute Catalog series is again in print. The 1920s set covers the important filmmaking period when movies became talkies and the careers of many influential directors and actors were launched. Films such as Wings, The Phantom of the Opera, All Quiet on the Western Front, and The Jazz Singer are included in this volume. The Illustrated London News, 1870 The New World Park Benjamin, James Aldrich, Henry Champion Deming, James Mackay, 1841 The League, 1844 Never Caught Erica Armstrong

Dunbar, 2017-02-07 A startling and eye-opening look into America's First Family. Never Caught is the powerful story about a daring woman of extraordinary grit. The Philadelphia Inquirer: When George Washington was elected president, he reluctantly left behind his beloved Mount Vernon to serve in Philadelphia, the temporary seat of the nation's capital. In setting up his household, he brought along nine slaves, including Ona Judge. As the President grew accustomed to Northern ways, there was one change he couldn't abide: Pennsylvania law required enslaved people be set free after six months of residency in the state. Rather than comply, Washington decided to circumvent the law. Every six months, he sent the slaves back down south just as the clock was about to expire. Though Ona Judge lived a life of relative comfort, she was denied freedom. So when the opportunity presented itself one clear and pleasant spring day in Philadelphia, Judge left everything she knew to escape to New England. Yet freedom would not come without its costs. At just twenty-two years old, Ona became the subject of an intense manhunt led by George Washington, who used his political and personal contacts to recapture his property. A crisp and compulsively readable feat of research and storytelling. USA TODAY historian and National Book Award finalist Erica

Armstrong Dunbar weaves a powerful tale and offers fascinating new scholarship on how one young woman risked everything to gain freedom from the famous founding father and most powerful man in the United States at the time
