Richard III ; Love's labour's lost William Shakespeare,1908 Handel and Maurice Greene's Circle at the Apollo Academy Matthew Gardner,2008-12-10 The Apollo Academy a musical club founded in 1731 by Maurice Greene and his friend Michael Christian Festing was the performance location of various oratorios odes and masques produced by composers in Greene s circle of friends colleagues and pupils Many of the works performed both in and outside the academy meetings are based on subjects such as Jephtha Deborah and the choice of Hercules which were well known in eighteenth century England and also attracted the attention of Handel This long overdue study explores these works in terms of their intellectual contexts political religious social and cultural comparing them to Handel s compositions on the same or similar subjects Additionally detailed source information and musical analysis of the works is included as well as a discussion of the competition between Handel and his English contemporaries in order to provide a fuller picture of the diverse musical and cultural life in London during the first half of the eighteenth century Love's Forgiveness John Lippitt,2020-09-25 Love s Forgiveness combines a discussion of the nature and ethics of forgiveness with a discussion inspired by Kierkegaard of the implications of considering interpersonal forgiveness as a work of love It introduces the reader to some key questions that have exercised recent philosophers of forgiveness discussing the relationship between forgiveness and an extended notion of resentment considering whether forgiveness should be conditional or unconditional showcasing a particular understanding of the latter and arguing that there are legitimate forms of third party forgiveness It then introduces the idea of forgiveness as a work of love through a discussion of Kierkegaard key New Testament passages on forgiveness and some contemporary work on the philosophy of love Drawing on both philosophy and the New Testament it offers an understanding of forgiveness that incorporates both agapic love and a proper concern for justice John Lippitt explores religious and secular uses of key metaphors for forgiveness and the idea of forgivingness as a character trait suggesting that seeking to correct for various cognitive biases is key to the development of such a virtue and connecting it to other putative virtues such as humility and hope Lippitt draws on both Kierkegaard's discourse literature and contemporary philosophical work on these latter characteristics before turning to a discussion of the nature of self forgiveness Throughout the book the philosophical and theological literature is rooted in a discussion of various forgiveness narratives including Helen Prejean's Dead Man Walking Thordis Elva and Tom Stranger's South of Forgiveness and Ian McEwan's Atonement
