Music Philosophy and Religion Memory and Hope Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2015-10-08 This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even present day relations Its operative notion is that of healing of memory a notion developed by John Paul II The different papers explore how the painful memories of yesteryear can be healed in the framework of contemporary efforts In so doing they seek to address some of the root causes that continue to impact present day relations but which rarely if ever get addressed in other contexts Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that seeks to identify the kinds of tools that would allow us to improve present day relations At the end of the conceptual pole of this project is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizons for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions so that it might be receptive to opening up to a common vision of good for all Between memory and hope the project seeks to offer a vision of healing and hope that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations
