Lost On The Way Adventures In 40000 Miles Of Hitchhiking:

Lost on the Way Ronald Dane, 2011-11-15 Financed by nothing but a whim while bouncing from one European country to another author Ronald Dane eventually finds himself in Gibraltar where he and a friend decide to visit the continent across the Strait This trip however was almost his last In this travel memoir Dane narrates the story of his hitchhiking adventures in the early 1970s when as a young man he hitched 40 000 miles through twenty some countries over a seven year period Lost on the Way tells of his arrival in Africa where he grew sick and increasingly feverish Alone Dane decides to hitchhike from Tangiers to Tunis and eventually boards a train heading in the wrong direction Over the next few weeks his fever increases and the possibility that he will never make it out of Africa alive becomes frighteningly probable Insightful and humorous Lost on the Way details Danes journey as he makes his way along a circuitous route crossing Morocco Meet the people he meets along the way including the doctors who assure him he is going to die the border official who tries to prevent him from crossing and the individuals who help him when he needs help the most

Leaders from the 1960s David De Leon, 1994-06-22 The throngs at Woodstock Jane Fonda in Hanoi I Have a Dream burning draft cards fire in the streets these images of the 1960s are still very much alive today What happened to the people and principles that dominated that decade Which leaders from those turbulent years had the most lasting effect on our lives today How well have the principles for which those leaders fought so strongly withstood the test of time This thought provoking biographical dictionary allows the reader to study the leaders both conservative and liberal their ideals and their enduring influence With major sections on racial democracy peace and freedom sexuality and gender the environment radical culture and visions of alternative societies Leaders from the 1960s includes entries on a wide selection of nationally prominent activists of the 1960s In addition to those who dominated only the sixties the volume includes earlier activists who came into prominence in the 1960s and activists of the era who came into prominence since the 1960s Each entry provides a biographical sketch but the focus of the entries is on the person s basic concepts or the essence of his or her work and the public response it generated Included are extensive bibliographies on the individuals and the period

The world by hitchhiking Ludovic Hubler, A business school is everything but a hitchhikers training place Its main objective is to train tomorrow s business leaders and decision makers and prepare them for the work environment But Ludovic Hubler from Alsace in France a graduate of Strasbourg Business School chose to break with the traditional educational mould and do things differently When he obtained his Master s Degree at the age of 24 he believed that discovering the realities of the world was a necessary prelude to embarking on a professional career That s why on 1st January 2003 he started off on a tour of mankind that he likes to call his Life PhD His adventure lasted five years during which he travelled the world solely by means of hitch hiking in every conceivable form From boat hitching across the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans to ice breaker hitching to reach Antarctica to crossing the Sahara desert or passing through countries such as Colombia and Afghanistan Ludovic put his thumb to the test in all imaginable situations His experiences and meetings were vast and varied Among the most outstanding the Dalai Lama received him at his home in Dharamsala in India but equally interesting were the thousands of students from all walks of life with whom Ludovic shared his adventures on the road A total of 5 years travelled spanning 106 000 miles and 59 countries hundreds of lectures given and lifts from more than 1 300 people received give an idea of the extent and richness of the journey More than recounting an extreme feat this book traces an extraordinary human adventure where you re transported by the wind of freedom Rebel Visions Patrick Rosenkranz,2002 A provocative chronicle of the guerilla art movement that changed comics forever this comprehensive book follows the movements of 50 artists from 1967 to 1972 the heyday of the underground comix movement With the cooperation of every significant underground cartoonist of the period including R Crumb Gilbert Shelton Bill Griffith Art Spiegelman Jack Jackson S Clay Wilson Robert Williams and many more the book is illustrated with many neve before seen drawings and exclusive photos Congressional Record United States. A Hell of a Place to Lose a Cow Tim Brookes, 2001 A noted cultural critic and NPR essayist offers a lively and provocative account of his hitchhiking odyssey across the United States documenting his experiences along the way and reexamining America's onetime love affair with the road trip Reprint 15 000 first printing Keep Going Don DeArmon, 2016-07-01 When 16 year old Don DeArmon and 17 year old Erich Caron decided to thumb from their Maryland hometown to national parks in the western United States their summer travels transformed their lives Crisscrossing the country four times during 1971 and 1972 in the shadow of Woodstock the Age of Aquarius and the Vietnam War they found high adventure and hardship in far corners of the U S and Canada Their hitchhiking travels 20 000 miles worth took them through 29 states and all the way to Alaska as they navigated a landscape of hippies highways and highway patrolmen Keep Going is a humorous and poignant memoir about a simpler and less suspicious country and the perfect strangers Americans of every stripe who helped Don and Erich on their journey to adulthood

Seven Thousand Miles to Nowhere Walt McLaughlin, 2020-08-21 During the summer of '76 a disillusioned college boy set aside his books long enough to hitchhike from Ohio to British Columbia and back A hunger for meaning stirred deep within as he climbed in and out of other people's cars other people's lives while dealing with the realities of the open road Truckers a philosopher farmer cowboys born again Christians and hippies all had something more to offer but the author kept moving through the western American landscape until he reached a dead end Then the adventure really began This is a tale of numerous highway encounters and one young man's attempt to make sense of the world in the process
