Duffy,2023-12-05 A harrowing account of an epic yet nearly forgotten battle of World War II General Douglas MacArthur s four year assault on the Pacific

War's most hostile battleground the mountainous jungle cloaked island of New Guinea. A meaty engrossing narrative history. This will likely stand as the definitive account of the New Guinea campaign. The Christian Science Monitor. One American soldier called it a green hell on earth. Monsoon soaked wilderness debilitating heat impassable mountains torrential rivers and disease infested swamps. New Guinea was a battleground far more deadly than the most fanatical of enemy troops. Japanese forces numbering some 600 000 men began landing in January 1942 determined to seize the island as a cornerstone of the Empire's strategy to knock Australia out of the war. Allied Commander in Chief General Douglas MacArthur committed 340 000 Americans as well as tens of thousands of Australian Dutch and New Guinea troops to retake New Guinea at all costs. What followed was a four year campaign that involved some of the most horrific warfare in history. At first emboldened by easy victories throughout the Pacific the Japanese soon encountered in New Guinea a roadblock akin to the Germans disastrous attempt to take Moscow a catastrophic setback to their war machine. For the Americans victory in New Guinea was the first essential step in the long march towards the Japanese home islands and the ultimate destruction of Hirohito's empire. Winning the war in New Guinea was of critical importance to MacArthur. His avowed I shall return to the Philippines could only be accomplished after taking the island. In this gripping narrative historian James P. Duffy chronicles the most ruthless combat of the Pacific War a fight complicated by rampant tropical disease violent rainstorms and unforgiving terrain that punished both Axis and Allied forces alike. Drawing on primary sources War at the End of the World fills in a crucial gap in the history of World War II while offering readers a narrative of the first rank. 13 Hours Mitchell Zuckoff, 2014-09-09. The harrowing true account from the brave men on the ground who fought back during the Battle of Benghazi and the basis of the movie starring Jon Krasinski and directed by Michael Bay. 13 Hours presents for the first time ever the true account of the events of September 11 2012 when terrorists attacked the US State Department Special Mission Compound and a nearby CIA station called the Annex in Benghazi Libya. A team of six American security operators fought to repel the attackers and protect the Americans stationed there. Those men went beyond the call of duty performing extraordinary acts of courage and heroism to avert tragedy on a much larger scale. This is their personal account never before told of what happened during the thirteen hours of that now infamous attack. 13 Hours sets the record straight on what happened during a night that has been shrouded in mystery and controversy. Written by New York Times bestselling author Mitchell Zuckoff this riveting book takes readers into the action packed story of heroes who laid their lives on the line for one another for their countrymen and for their country. 13 Hours is a stunning eye opening and intense book but most importantly it is the truth. The story of what happened to these men and what they accomplished is unforgettable. Lost in Shangri-La Mitchell Zuckoff, 2011-04-26.
