Love And Fury A Memoir:

Love and Fury Margie Orford, 2024      Love and Fury Richard Hoffman, 2014-06-03 An acclaimed author reflects on his upbringing in a post World War II blue collar family and comes to terms with the racism sexism and other toxic values he inherited Finalist for the 2014 New England Book Award in Non Fiction Richard Hoffman sometimes felt as though he had two fathers the real one who raised him and an imaginary version one he talked to on the phone and one he talked to in his head Although Hoffman was always close to the man his father remained a mystery shrouded in a perplexing mix of tenderness and rage When his father receives a terminal cancer diagnosis Hoffman confronts the depths and limitations of their lifelong struggle to know each other weighing their differences and coming to understand that their yearning and puzzlement was mutual With familial relationships at its center Love Fury draws connections between past and present from the author s grandfather a breaker boy sent down into the anthracite mines of Pennsylvania at the age of ten to his young grandson whose father is among the estimated one million young black men incarcerated today In a critique of culture and of self Hoffman grapples with the way we have absorbed and incorporated the compelling imagery of post WWII America and its values especially regarding class war women race masculinity violence divinity and wealth A masterful memoirist Hoffman writes not only to tell a gripping story but also to understand through his family the social and ethical contours of American life At the book s core are the author s questions about boyhood fatherhood and grandfatherhood and about the changing meaning of what it means to be a good man in America now and into the future      Being There Tony Leon, 2025-05-09 In Being There Tony Leon goes behind the scenes reflecting on how history is made both here and around the world through his unique mixture of anecdote and informed opinion His vantage point ranges from a ringside seat in the recent formation of the government of national unity GNU recounted in detail here for the first time to close encounters with the likes of Harry Oppenheimer Ariel Sharon Yasser Arafat and Boris Johnson and reappraisals of FW de Klerk Nelson Mandela and Mangosuthu Buthelezi Leon writes of the dangers of modern politics from the purgatory of social media to the perils of political fundraising in tough times The challenge of leadership in a world often led by populist grifters or uninspiring time servers runs like a golden thread through the book Written with his customary blend of humour and flair and with an eye to the future and what the present and the past can tell us about it Being There is both important and highly readable      After the Fires Nozipho Tshabalala, 2025-08-15 When the flames of life s challenges have swept through you who do you become from the ashes Nozipho Tshabalala is a high performing excellence driven successful black woman Being in control of everything in her life was crucial to her survival and success For the most part it had always served her well until it didn t In this captivating and deeply personal memoir conversation strategist Nozipho invites you into her world one shaped by political violence professional triumphs on global stages and the intimate battles with loss that would test her most fundamental beliefs Now in her 40s she has realised that what she needed most to survive may not be what she needs to thrive After the Fires is a call to reclaim the narrative amid life's unexpected turns It honours the complexity of womanhood while celebrating the possibility of becoming exactly who you were meant to be even when that person looks nothing like what you imagined With vulnerability and wisdom Nozipho demonstrates how surrender becomes not an act of defeat but a pathway to freedom Her story reminds us that sometimes our greatest strength lies not in holding tighter but in opening our hands to release what no longer serves us

Journey Kwantu Vusumzi Ngxande, 2025-05-28 KWANTU MEANS HOME For decades African spirituality has been demonised or met with suspicion Many people find themselves at a crossroads that has them questioning their religious upbringing while trying to understand their place within African spiritual practice There are those who have to choose between being a believer usually in the Christian faith or believing in their ancestors As the cultural trajectory of the world shifts more people desire a deeper understanding of ancestral practices their history and their relevance to modern life Journey Kwantu is inspired by Vusumzi Ngxande's popular podcast of the same name that delves into South African spiritual identity showing how it has evolved over hundreds of years The book is rooted in extensive historical research lived experiences and interviews with healers teachers and ordinary people trying to live their truth With a unique ability to simplify complex issues the author endeavours to answer taboo questions like Who are we and How did we come to believe what we believe In the process he deals with challenges he has struggled with on his own spiritual journey from death the afterlife and the authority of ancestors versus the power of God to more practical matters like performing rituals in urban areas and understanding lineage and its impact on one's spiritual life Deeply perceptive and engaging Journey Kwantu offers guidance and sustenance to African believers

Crash and Burn Glenn Orsmond, 2024-06-12 In the cut throat world of low cost airlines competition is the name of the game Not only up in the air but also on the ground Crash and Burn is an insider's tale of the South African airline industry over the past thirty years and the dramatic collapse of Comair in 2022 as told by Glenn Orsmond twice CEO of Comair and the founder CEO of 1time Orsmond takes the reader on a wild ride through the ultra competitive sector of low cost airlines that boomed after South African Airways stranglehold on the skies was loosened in the 1990s Comair which operated both Kulula and British Airways and 1time were at the forefront of this new wave of airlines that saw domestic flying and tourism take off But after some incredible highs and lows Comair crashed under Orsmond's watch despite the company's 75 year unblemished profit history The pandemic's impact the grounding of aeroplanes after a questionable regulator investigation and poor management decisions all contributed to its downfall Expect tales of industry legends and innovation but also of competitors trying to gut each other battles between pilots and accountants unions and bosses at loggerheads and warfare between shareholders and directors in boardrooms You'll never think of flying in South Africa in the same way again

Hollywood on the Veld Ted Botha, 2025-04-16 In 1913 a secretive American millionaire who lived on the top floor of the famous Carlton Hotel had a crazy idea to make movies in Johannesburg And not just any movies but the biggest in the world huge spectacles with elaborate sets thousands of extras and epic story lines Isidore Schlesinger better known as IW built a studio on a farm called Killarney where he set out to challenge a place in America that was in its infancy Hollywood The glamour gossip and high drama of IW s studio fitted perfectly into a city experiencing an intoxicating golden age There was as much action on the movie sets as there was on screen from political intrigue and the clashing of massive egos to public outbursts fiery judicial inquiries disaster and death Behind this mad enterprise was a maverick a tycoon a recluse a friend of the famed and the connected Schlesinger could have held his own in California but he chose as his base the City of Gold and his indomitable ambition saw his Hollywood on the Veld soar This is the untold story of the rise and fall of the strangest and most unique movie empire ever Writing
