My Beloved Friend, Judas Vincent L. Di Paolo, 2015-10-15 In the year 2023 after a nuclear Armageddon only a few pockets of people have survived One of these groups of survivors mostly rock climbers and mountaineers subsists through the leadership of Jude a biblical archaeologist and rock climber Jude is given a chance to go back in time by using an invention of a surviving U S scientist Jude is transported back to Palestine during the first century where he searches for Jesus to verify if he truly was the Messiah or a charlatan Dying from nuclear cancer Jude spends most of his given time looking for Jesus finally finding him meditating on a mountaintop Jude mesmerized by Ishias Jesus power becomes his first follower and best friend Judas His friendship and his knowledge of Ishia of Nazerat become the pivotal force in the last three years of their lives Jude becomes the Judas torn apart between being Ishias beloved friend and being his betrayer The shocking and controversial ending is for you the reader to read and discover It will tear at your very soul but it will rejuvenate and strengthen your faith in Jesus Christ A must for every Christian to read     Comparing Faithfully Michelle Voss,2016-09-01 Every generation of theologians must respond to its context by rearticulating the central tenets of the faith Interreligious comparison has been integral to this process from the start of the Christian tradition and is especially salient today The emerging field of comparative theology in which close study of another religious tradition yields new questions and categories for theological reflection in the scholar s home tradition embodies the ecumenical spirit of this moment This discipline has the potential to enrich systematic theology and by extension theological education at its foundations The essays in Comparing Faithfully demonstrate that engagement with religious diversity need not be an afterthought in the study of Christian systematic theology rather it can be a way into systematic theological thinking Each section invites students to test theological categories to consider Christian doctrine in relation to specific comparisons and to take up comparative study in their own contexts This resource for pastors and theology students reconsiders five central doctrines of the Christian faith in light of focused interreligious investigations The dialogical format of the book builds conversation about the doctrine of God theodicy humanity Christology and soteriology Its comparative essays span examples from Hindu Buddhist Jewish Muslim Jain and Confucian traditions as well as indigenous Aztec theology and contemporary spiritual but not religious thought to offer exciting new perspectives on Christian doctrine     Words of Encouragement Marcy,2012-10 author did not provide book summary
